THE ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Twenty-sixth and Seward Streets
Russel Taylor, Pastor.

Next Sunday morning, St. Paul's pulpit will be occupied by a representative of the National Committee of the Near East Relief Work. It is well for us to turn our thoughts at intervals to world-wide conditions. Our own burdens oftentimes become exceedingly light when we view the tremendous odds confronting other members of the human family. We trust that every member and friend of the church will avail himself of the opportunity to hear the speaker on this occasion.

Beginning next Sunday evening the pastor will have a series of discourses on the Apocalypse, or Revelation. He has come to this decision for several reasons, one of which is that our congregation may know the orthodox view of this very much misinterpreted book. To prepare these discourses will mean a deal of diligent study and it is hoped that those for whom it is given will use diligent effort to avail themselves of what will be said on these occasions. "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believed." What was true in the Apostolic Church, the period in which these words were recorded, is true today. Instruction concerning the things of God comes through the preaching of His word.

Christian Endeavor topic, "How Can We Help Foreign Mission Work?" This society meets at 7:15 P. M. The leader for Sunday evening is Mrs. M. A. Johnson.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters

Musterole, made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients will do all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—without the blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from bronchitis, sore throat, coughs, colds, croup, neuralgia, headache, congestion, rheumatism, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, and all aches and pains. It may prevent pneumonia. All druggists—35c and 65c jars and tubes—hospital size $3.

Better than a mustard plaster
