

BOZO THE SILENT

With "Follies of the Day" at the Popular Gayety Twice Daily all Next Week. Final Performance Friday Night.

BOB TOLLIVER WITH "BOZO"

Talented Colored Performer Shines in "Follies of the Day".

Here's what the Syracuse (N. Y.) Journal had to say about "Bozo, the Silent" and Barney Gerard's "Follies of the Day", the big attraction at the popular Gayety for six days only, starting at 3:00 Sunday afternoon, October 8th:

Silence is indeed golden, you learn again from Tommy "Bozo" Snyder, who is with us for three days in "Follies of the Day", playing a return engagement at the Bastable.

Golden is not alone to him who is silent, but to him who employs the silent one as well.

Not only is Snyder the highest salaried comedian in his field, but the "Follies of the Day" is the best money-maker that revolves with the Columbia wheel.

"What Does the Public Want" is the title that Barney Gerard has given his Klondike.

The answer is, "Follies of the Day" and productions like it. In spite of adverse weather conditions, Syracuse theatregoers packed the Bastable Wednesday night at the season's premier. And, in spite of two interruptions, due to crippled power service, they remained to the finish, although that meant a midnight final curtain. If the Columbia producers would take a tip from Gerard's book, there would be no starvation seasons in burlesque—and Syracuse would have continued on the wheel this season.

The present edition of the "Follies" embraces much of the material that marked the production last year, but Gerard has materially strengthened his company by changes in the supporting cast. This is especially true as regards the women principals. Gertrude "Babe" Lavetta, an old friend, is a better ingenue-soubret (mostly soubret) than was Gertrude Hayes, Jr. Babe Almond, also a new soubret, is shapely, speedy and talented. The two girls are very much in evidence throughout the show, Miss Lavetta particularly. A veteran of some seasons, Miss Lavetta's work gains in polish each year. Her songs are sure-fire, her stepping graceful and her comedy bits well handled.

Then, in the male contingent, as new comers there are the California Trio, three clean cut boys with voices that always please.

Sam Green—who as yet hasn't entered the ministry—remains as Bozo's foil. J. B. Williams, Harry Watson, Harley Mayne and Bob Tolliver—it was Bob who did the stepping while the lights went out—are among the other principals. And oh boy, what a chorus! Barney's eye has not lost its cunning.

Snyder, who relies upon pantomime and facial expression for his laughs, is burlesque's premier comedian; he more than anyone else has raised burlesque comedy to the level of an art. More power to him as the seasons roll on.

It's not necessary to elaborate upon the dress of this Gerard production; the mere statement that Barney bought the Ziefeld equipment intact is sufficient.

There will be a matinee daily at 2:15. Bob Tolliver at every performance, day and night. The engagement will close on Friday night.

LINCOLN NEWS AND COMMENT

Mr. Aaron Shackelford left for Washington, D. C., last Sunday, where he will enter Howard university.

Courtney Cooley returned home from Kansas City, Mo., last Tuesday. He left Sunday for Boston, Mass., where he will enter college.

Miss Gertrude Jones of Omaha, sister to Mrs. M. Williams, is attending the State university here.

Mrs. Margaret Williams has just returned home from a pleasure visit with her mother in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beard will leave for Sheldon, Ia., next Saturday, where they expect to live in the future.

State Missionary Rev. M. H. Wilkinson worshipped at Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday morning, and preached for the Morning Star Baptist congregation at night.

Mrs. Katie Graves met with a slight accident one day last week, becoming shaken up, but not serious.

Mrs. John Johnson gave a dinner party last Sunday in honor of her guest, Miss Thelma Jackson of Kansas City, Kans.

Miss Thelma Jackson returned to her home, Kansas City, Kans., last Friday after a pleasant stay here.

Rev. O. J. Burckhardt recently visited his sister, Mrs. H. Tolds at Moberly, Mo., also meeting our old friend, Dr. H. A. Langdon, and many other friends, all of whom seem to be prosperous.

Rev. Wilson preached for Rev. W. A. McClendon at the A. M. C. church last Sunday morning. The Sunday school had fine services at night. The students of the church gave a sacred program which was said to have been good. Attendance was good.

At the Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday praise and covenant services were held, feature of every first Sunday. The Sunday school was held at 10 o'clock, State Missionary Rev. M. H. Wilkinson spoke words of encouragement to the school. The B. Y. P. U. had a nice meeting. Rev. H. W. Botts delivered an unusually fine sermon, after which communion was served to a goodly number of members. The collections for the building fund are holding up fine.

Remember on next Sunday the corner stone laying of Mt. Zion Baptist church will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Lebanon lodge No. 3 will officiate and a program has been arranged to be carried out, if weather permits. Master masons, all churches regardless of denomination are cordially invited to be present, and lend us your aid—as we believe we have started a church building which will be a credit to the state, city and the entire Negro population of the city. You'll say so, when you see it finished in its entirety. Come over to Macedonia and help us!

The funeral of Sadie Hickman, who died in Omaha last Monday, was held in Matthews chapel last Friday afternoon. Rev. O. J. Burckhardt preached. Relatives present were: Mrs. Charlotte Drake, Omaha; Thomas Hickman, Omaha; Mrs. Jennie Edwards, aunt, Lincoln; Rev. U. S. Hickman of Beatrice was sick and unable to attend. Friends paid last respects. Interment in Wyuka.

READ WHAT YOUR FRIENDS have to say of what Madam E. Hackley Lawson
ACME HAIR GROWER
has done for them.
Omaha, Neb., Sept. 18, 1922.

Enough can not be said of Madam E. Hackley Lawson's wonderful Hair Grower. I was very much discouraged with the many hair oils until better than one year ago I began Madam Lawson's treatment which has proven a success, for my hair was then three inches long and breaking harsh and falling with an itching scalp. But now I have an abundant growth of hair, ten inches long, with a healthy scalp, owing to the wonderful Acme Hair Grower.—MRS. A. BALDWIN, 2225 North 26th Street.
