

HELEN KAY BOOTH

A merry mimic with "The Mimic World" at the popular Gayety twice daily all week starting Saturday matinee, October 14th. Sunday matinee at 3:00.

ANOTHER WONDROUS SHOW

The Good Ones Keep Coming to the Gayety Week After Week.

The "Mimic World" entertainment announced for the Gayety theatre starting with the Saturday matinee, October 14th, is advanced as an offering constructed on unusual lines by Cain & Davenport who have assembled three separate styles of diversion in one program. There will be a section devoted to mimicry of famous stage personalities; another division presents displays of every style of dancing known to stageland and the finale will be an oriental melange of song, scenery and stage effects.

"Ming Toy" will be the musical offering, set in rare scenic surroundings, peopled with singers and dancers in a kaleidoscopic costume display. "The Mimic World" is an aggregation of young blood, with youthful vivacity in full command of every situation. Practically every individual in the roster is a specialist and at some time during the progress of the show every boy and girl in the company gets the center of the stage to display individual talent.

In the opening session mimicry and impersonation has the call more than a score of stage favorites—coming in for mimic representation. Thus "Bessie Clayton" will dance, "Courtney Sisters" will sing and "Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven" will act a "movie scene". The list of impersonations represents practically every favorite of current vogue, their "act" being reproduced in snappy passages by youthful delineators who have made a close study of the players they impersonify.

Another episode will embody a number of oddities in entertainment with the comedy scene, "Just for Fun", introducing Robert and George Harmon, featured for its laugh-provoking possibilities. There also will be introduced a "jazz orchestra" that will build up the entire entertainment through novel instrumental diversifications.

Estelle Powell, featured as "The Joy Girl of Jazzy Songland", will also contribute a specialty, but for the most part of the "Mimic World" entertainments will be contributed by ensembles and chorus groupings of singers and dancers. Joe Wood, who has spent years producing vaudeville acts and "girl" numbers, personally staged the offering. "The Mimic World" is something new to Columbia burlesque. Sunday matinee at 3:00. Matinee daily all week. Engagement closes Friday night.

LINCOLN NEWS AND COMMENT

Services at the A. M. E. Church were conducted by the pastor, W. A. McClendon, who preached excellent sermons morning and night. Sunday school was well attended.

Eugene Nichols went to Washington, D. C., to enter college.

Miss Jennie Porter has returned to the city from Chicago.

Rev. H. W. Botts spent Tuesday in Omaha attending the executive board of the New Era Baptist Association of Nebraska.

Mr. Walter L. Seals and Mrs. Seals spent Sunday in the city.

Services at Mt. Zion Baptist Church were well attended last Sunday. The pastor, H. W. Botts, delivered his usual good sermons. Sunday school and B.Y. P. U. had nice meetings at their hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiley entertained the Utopian Art Club at their home last Thursday night.

Remember the birthday supper to be given by the Utopian Art Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mosley, 1335 Rose street, Tuesday night, October 17th. Come!

The corner stone laying at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Twelfth and F streets, Sunday, October 8th, at 3 p. m., was marked with an unusual incident. The Nebraska state convention rendered the following program which was carried out to the letter: Hymn, Scripture reading, Dr. J. H. McAllister; prayer, Dr. C. J. Pope; hymn. Special greeting—For State Convention, Mr. A. B. Newell for Baptist churches of Lincoln, Deacon E. E. Bennett; for Negro churches of Lincoln, Dr. McClendon; address, Dr. Walter L. Fowle, secretary State Convention; remarks, subject, "Our Church", the pastor; offering; benediction, Rev. F. W. Ainslie. Every person programmed was present and did his part admirably. The placing of the stone was under the auspices of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of A. F. and A. M. of Nebraska and jurisdiction, with masonic rites and ceremonies. R. H. Young, grand master. Lebanon lodge, No. 3, about forty men strong, turned out in full regalia, making a very neat appearance before the public, which we understand was commented on very favorably by the large crowd in attendance. Rev. H. W. Botts and his corps of officers and members received much commendation for the fine church structure they have begun and which when finished will be a credit to all peoples—Grand Master R. H. Young complimented the members of Lebanon lodge on the fine parade and unique appearance on this special occasion.

The Grand Lodge of O. E. S. convened in Omaha last week and the following ladies were in attendance: Mrs. Laura Johnson, G. M. R. M.; Mrs. Fanny Young, Mrs. M. Johnson, Mrs. Ida McWilliams, Mrs. Johannah Spann. The degree team of about sixteen ladies of the Star went over, and gave a fine drill, which was very successful.

G. M. R. H. Young spent Friday in Omaha.

have to say of what Madam E. Hackley Lawson ACME HAIR GROWER has done for them.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 18, 1922. Enough can not be said of Madam E. Hackley Lawson's wonderful Hair Grower. I was very much discouraged with the many hair oils until better than one year ago I began Madam Lawson's treatment which has proven a success, for my hair was then three inches long and breaking harsh and falling with an itching scalp. But now I have an abundant growth of hair, ten inches long, with a healthful scalp, owing to the wonderful Acme Hair Grower—MRS. A. BALDWIN, 2225 North 26th Street.
