

LINCOLN NEWS AND COMMENT

As the cold days come on, it makes persons think of their last summer's wages.

The supper given by the Mt. Zion Baptist church serving club was a success. They have these every Saturday night at the parsonage back of the new church.

Mrs. M. Griffin was an Omaha visitor last week, attending the executive board of the New Era Baptist Assn.

Services were nicely attended at the A. M. E. church last Sunday. The Sunday School was held at the usual hour. Rev. W. A. McClendon preached two fine sermons during the day.

The DuBois Literary Society held its first meeting of the season at four p. m. The Aid Societies are still gathering finance for their parsonage.

Mrs. J. E. Jeltz has returned to the city.

Daughters of Bethel supper at Masonic Hall Thursday night, Oct. 26th.

The masked carnival and entertainment given in Wiley Hall, 1122 O. street, last Tuesday night by the mission was a big success. A large number of friends were in mask, and evoked much amusement.

Throwing of confetti was quite a fad. The management is said to have realized quite a sum for the Mt. Zion building run.

Services were well attended at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday. The Sunday School showed some gain. Praise services were held. Rev. H. W. Botts, the pastor, preached two stirring sermons during the day, which afforded food for thought.

Fine collections are being reported for the building fund, amount raised during the day being $139.70.

Miss Jennie Porter says that she will return to Chicago in a few days.

Rev. H. W. Botts and congregation are hopeful of returning to their own home church soon.

Rev. J. H. McAllister filled his pulpit as usual Sunday, his services being fairly attended by his members.

Going Beyond Repair.

I was returning on the electric train late one day from a long hike with my geology class. We were tired, and in getting our seats I pushed with my foot the back of the seat in front so that we could face each other.

I heard a crash, and with dismay saw I had knocked to the floor a bag which was on the seat. The owner promptly appeared on the scene with what seemed to me undue anxiety. I apologized for my act, adding that no harm seemed to have been done to his bag.

Increasing World's Food Supply. Col. R. J. Sturdy, who was chief veter-inary surgeon of the British ar-mies during the war, has taken to the pastoral life now—but on a very large scale. He is raising sheep and cattle on the high pampas of south-ern Peru, under the aegis of the Peruvian government and the Peruv-ian corporation. His experimental and survey work he finds absorbing, and he expresses the opinion that some day this region will become one of the richest grazing territories in the world through expert breeding of the coun-try's valuable native wool-bearing an-imals, the vicuna and guanaco.

READ WHAT YOUR FRIENDS have to say of what

Madam E. Hackley Lawson ACME HAIR GROWER has done for them.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 18, 1922. Enough can not be said of Madam E. Hackley Lawson's wonderful Hair Grower. I was very much discouraged with the many hair oils until better than one year ago I began Madam Lawson's treatment which has proven a success, for my hair was then three inches long and breaking harsh and falling with an itching scalp. But now I have an abundant growth of hair, ten inches long, with a healthy scalp, owing to the wonderful Acme Hair Grower.—MRS. A. BALDWIN, 2225 North 26th Street.
