

YOUR HAND How to Read Your Characteristics and Tendencies—the Capabilities or Weaknesses That Make for Success or Failure as Shown in Your Palm

THE HAND OF A MUSICIAN

WHEN the lower joints of the fingers, and especially of the finger of Saturn, the middle finger, are well knotted, it is a mark of skill in musical composition. Skill in execution of music is indicated by finger tips that are well padded. Some authorities on palmistry hold that a very good sign of skill and talent—perhaps even genius—in music is indicated by a finger of Jupiter (or forefinger) that is bent or curved; in rare cases, even to a degree approaching the semi-circle. This mark or sign is accentuated and strengthened if the finger of Mercury, the little finger, is also bent in similar fashion. This shows a good musician of any sort, but especially a pianist. If only one finger is bent, some hold, it is a sign of a person who simply has a great love of music, while the bending of both fingers means a performer of music.

A short, sharp vertical line on the mount of Apollo, at the base of the third finger, is held to mean, invariably, skill in music. If the line of fortune (running from the line of life toward Mercury) leaves the line of life at a sharp angle, it means love of music.

Frightened Off. "I understand Cactus Joe has an offer to be a film actor," said the commercial traveler. "He could show 'em a lot of genuine realism in some of those desperado dramas." "Yes. But he won't accept. After readin' about some of these studio parties, Joe's afraid he couldn't stand the rough life."

Marjorie's talismanic jewel is the pearl. Old superstition has it that she will be blessed with good fortune and will win great love. Monday is her lucky day and two her lucky number. The daisy is her flower. An Alibi. Doctor—Sir, an immediate operation is necessary. Your appendix must come out at once. Patient—Appendix! How many have I? The one in this bottle was taken out five years ago!—Judge.

WHAT THEY SAID IN PASSING

Newspaper Man Took Notes of What He Overheard in Kansas City Shopping District.

Just what are women saying to each other as they walk along the street, was a query the young man with the investigative turn of mind found rattling around in his question box one day. The matter worried him until he determined to find out the answer. He went to the shopping district where the feminine groups abound and, with no intention of impoliteness, he gave ear to the conversation of passing femininity. The bits of conversation that reached his ear and gave him the answer to the great question came somewhat in this fashion: "She has been going with him for—Plenty long enough for street wear and besides—It sure is swell candy—That little car he drives looks pretty poor—She certainly knows how to string 'em—He called me up an' says—I'd never even met the man but he looked—It simply makes your complexion—Rolling them down is the thing this hot—She wears her clothes the worst of any—She told him she couldn't swim—He sure is jolly, but you can't tell about—Said his name was—I lost $10 in two hands—She shot her husband and it served—He's my favorite movie star—Newspaper men are so interesting—I just get a can of something at the grocery—Blue is your color, dear—He certainly is free with his coin—I'm dying for a sundae or a shot of coke—He saw me smoking and said—The silk ones are very reasonable now at—What he don't know won't—He always dresses well and has such—" Kansas City Star.

Alice Calhoun

One of the most rapid flights to "movie" stardom on record is that of Alice Calhoun. Her entire screen experience covers a span of only three short years. Yet, in that brief period, her beauty and talent have carried her to the heights to which many young women aspire. Miss Calhoun is a Cleveland girl. This is one of her latest pictures.

NORMALCY BY 1925 IS AIM OF RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT

Soviet Hopes to Attract Foreign Capital for Development of Many Industries.

The soviet government has set 1925 as the year when the production of Russian industries should be brought up to an output approaching the pre-war normal. Transport and agriculture and all auxiliary industries connected with them are to be re-established first. Special attention and liberal expenditure are recommended for oil and coal production. Oil, which in 1922 yielded 263,000,000 pounds (a pound is 35 pounds) is expected to yield 497,000,000 in 1925, and coal, which in 1922 yielded 670,000,000 pounds is expected to give 1,670,000,000 in 1925, as against 570,000,000 pounds of oil in pre-war times, and 2,097,000,000 pounds of coal in 1918, the year of maximum production. The metal industry, which in 1922 yielded 30,000,000 pounds, is expected to yield 120,000,000 in 1925, as against 257,400,000 pounds in 1913. In the textile industry, where 1,368,500 spindles and 36,000 looms are working in 1922, producing 500,000,000 yards of cloth, 3,000,000 spindles and 8,000 looms are expected to yield 1,400,000,000 yards of cloth in 1925. This plan, however, cannot be accomplished without money, says a report to the recent communist party conference. Money is needed from the start, both as fundamental and working capital. And the sum to bring the various industries through till 1925 is fixed at 3,500,000,000 gold rubles. As no such money can be found in the country, the report urges the necessity of attracting money from abroad, as otherwise the existence of the most important industries—metal, machine and mining—are greatly threatened.

STATUE OF GLADSTONE GETS ITS ANNUAL FACE WASHING

The statue of Gladstone in the Strand, London, presented a curious view recently when workmen were busy giving him the yearly "rub over."

GREAT ARTISTS POORLY PAID

Michael Angelo Toiled for $32 Monthly; Giotto for $1 a Day.

Modern artists who are inclined to complain of the lack of appreciation of the public, expressed in dollars and cents, of their work, may be interested in the money made by some of their famous predecessors.

The ancient masters of painting labored for small pay. Cimabue, the first of the great masters and the discoverer of Giotto, was paid about $1 a day, but he had to share this income with an assistant. Giotto himself, called the father of painting and the producer of many fine masterpieces, got from $5 to $11 for each of his figures. Michael Angelo, Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael lived in what may be called the golden age of art, yet the first two received salaries of $32 a month and the last named got $250 for a portrait.

ALFONSO DISPLAYS HUMOR

Laughs When Child Says He Is Not Handsome Enough to Be King.

King Alfonso still likes children. He was talking to a little girl of six years during his visit to Deauville, France, when he suddenly burst out laughing. He had been telling the child, in reply to her question, that he really was the king of Spain.

"I don't believe it," the child said; "you have no crown, no diamonds, no throne, and, then, you are not handsome enough. All the kings I've seen in picture books were good-looking."

Slipped in Bathing Beauty Slides.

An illustrated lecture given by a professor before a class in Grecian art in the University of Mississippi, Oxford, Miss., was nearly broken up as a result of a freshman slipping in some slides of "movie" bathing beauties.

Warsaw Reports Show Rail Traffic Is Increasing.

Railroad traffic in Poland is increasing. During the first six months of the present year it was 20 per cent greater than during the same period in 1921.

The Polish government has purchased from the United States 7,500 freight cars of a capacity of 30 tons each, and it is negotiating for a loan of freight cars from other countries, until the Polish railway equipment factories are able to deliver the first lot of cars now being made.
