NOTES OF THE N. W. C. A. HOME

The N. W. C. A. held a very interesting meeting last Wednesday, Nov. 1. A large number were present. The inclement weather did not keep the faithful ones away. Plans were made for the doll contest and as soon as the agent for the dolls, Mrs. Joe LaCuer, hears from New York and gets the doll for demonstration we will give the books out to the little girls who are so anxious to start to work. We have seven little girls and when that wonderful doll gets here we will have more to enter for the doll is beautiful, walks, talks and goes to sleep.

For the past seven years the pastors of the different churches have asked their congregations to bring an offering the Sunday before Thanksgiving to the church for the benefit of the Old Folks Home, so the committees are all arranged and will appear in our next week's paper. We hope those who attend the churches on Nov. 26 will bring a liberal offering for the Home. We have four inmates to care for and it takes as much to operate that home as it does our own, and we are depending on the public to help us operate the Home.

Who will see that the inmates have a fowl for their Thanksgiving dinner? Mr. John Broomfield has for the past four years seen that they had their Christmas dinner and we are sure of it this year from him. Anyone wishing to send a fowl can send it to 3029 Pinkney street or call Mrs. W. A. Shelton, Webster 0691, chairman of the house committee, and she will see that it gets to the home. Mrs. Ellise Turner, Cor. Secy.; Mrs. W. H. Mortimer, President.

ALLEN CHAPEL, A. M. E. CHURCH

25th and R St. Market 3475

O. J. Burekhardt, Pastor

We are closing out the greatest revival meeting ever held in So. Omaha. The effects of this meeting are far reaching and will be productive of much good to the entire church world of Omaha. People of all races and denominations attended this meeting and went away praising Rev. Mr. Brown for this great truth he was preaching to the people. Our immediate church has been renewed in spirit and zeal much to the joy of the pastor, and we look forward now to a continued growth and development of a real Christian people in the truest Bible sense of the word. We feel that a church should stand for the highest ideals in a community. Hence we are trying to remedy our defects by a closer relationship with God thru the operation of the Holy Spirit in our lives. We also see a way now to have a mission in South Omaha where many of our wayward boys and girls who will not attend a church may have a chance to come and hear the gospel ever night.
