LEWIS, ACCUSED OF STRIKING WOMAN, APPEALS THE CASE

Joseph D. Lewis, one of Omaha's young business men who operates a line of taxis, was out on a call last Sunday afternoon and a motorist turned in front of him without giving a signal and stopped. Lewis stopped suddenly and avoided a collision. While backing up his car two women who were in the other car came over to Lewis's car, it is alleged, and began to talk excitedly. Lewis opened his car door to learn what they were saying when the younger woman, Mrs. Harold Bell, it is alleged, reached in the car and struck him. As she was about to strike him again he pushed her back. They had Lewis arrested for assault and battery. Before taking him to the station, the officer allowed him to telephone his wife, who lost no time in getting in touch with M. F. Singleton, who will bring Lewis's bond. The case was tried in the police court Thursday morning before Judge Wappich. Mr. Bell's mother testified that she did not see Lewis strike her daughter. Mrs. Phillips, the passenger in Lewis's car, as well as Lewis himself, testified that he did not strike the woman. The court, however, sentenced Lewis to thirty days. The case was appealed to the district court, Mr. Lewis giving bond for his appearance. Mr. Lewis is an industrious young man and his wife is active in church and social uplift circles.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Twenty-fifth and R Streets—Phone Market 3475—O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor.

Sunday services were very good but the attendance was not up to the standard; but you know we are the only race of people as far as I know in the world that a little rain will prevent us from going to church, and strange to say that same rain won't prevent us from going anywhere else we want to go—but church. Rev. Mr. Brown preached us two splendid sermons Sunday and we had a great meeting at the newly organized mission at 3 p. m. Mr. Brown preached and in the evening Rev. A. Rayford had charge of the services.

Sunday we trust may be a great day with us. Allen chapel is a new church spiritually and if you really want to enjoy a religious treat we cordially invite you to come and worship with us. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock we will have preaching services at 4921 South Twenty-fifth street, the newly organized mission, as well as the services each night of the week. South Omaha needs a good mission for our people where all classes can come and hear the gospel. Remember you are always welcome at Allen chapel—come and bring your friends!

EMPEROR JONES TALKS OF HIS RACE AND ART

Monday. He has a boy, Paul, 20, in business in Philadelphia, and his wife is employed in New York. He has been on the stage off and on since 1890. A native of Richmond, Va., he is a printer by trade, learning his trade on a Richmond paper there. "Three years ago I was running an elevator in an apartment house at No. 79 West, Seventeenth street, New York. Show business was slack. I've been a stevedore and a porter on a troop train, and when I left this service I formed a trio of singers for the stage. Then I got the chance to play William Curtiss in 'Abraham Lincoln'. This chance came and I'm making the best of it," he said.
