N. W. C. A. HOME MAKES ITS ANNUAL APPEAL

The following committees will appear at the various churches Nov. 26 for Thanksgiving offerings for the Old Folks Home. As God has blessed you during the year by supplying you with your needs, won't you now help those who are less fortunate and bring a liberal silver offering on the 26th? We only come before the public twice a year, Thanksgiving and Easter, so won't you give the home what you can at your Church? We will also place in the entrance of the Church a box or barrel to hold the supplies you bring. The following are the different committees:

Zion Baptist—Mrs. Lillian Black, Mrs. W. F. Botts.

St. John's A. M. E.—Mrs. Eleese Turner, Mrs. Cecelia Jewell.

Bethel A. M. E.—Mrs. Shelton, Mrs. Laura Hicks.

Pilgrim Baptist—Mrs. Martha Smith, Mrs. John Bailey.

Bethel Baptist, South Side—Mrs. Alphonso Wilson, Mrs. Edesa Harris, Allen Chapel, South Side—Mrs. John McCorkle, Mrs. Miller.

Pleasant Green—Mrs. R. Simpson, Mrs. W. A. Davis.

Spring Hill—Mrs. M. Jackson, St. Philip's Episcopal—Mrs. W. H. Mortimer.

Mt. Moriah Baptist—Mrs. Nettie Frederick, Mrs. N. Hunter.

C. M. E.—Mrs. J. D. Reed, Mrs. Mercer.

Mt. Nebo Baptist—Mrs. Florence Johnson, Mrs. Bell Taylor.

Grove M. E.—Mrs. Elizabeth Reed, Mrs. John Lane.

St. Paul Presbyterian—Mrs. Edith Scott, Mrs. W. H. Ransom.

A report from all churches will be made in the papers after the first Wednesday in December.—Mrs. Eleese Turner, Cor. Secy.; Mrs. W. H. Mortimer, President.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, OUR SISTER CITY

The Welfare Drive is on in full swing with teams driving admirably and our group cooperating.

Adam Hall's barbecue and refreshment parlors are prospering. A dyeing, cleaning and laundry agency have been added.

Messrs Franklin and Nichols at the Grand Hotel are still holding down their benches with satisfaction to all patrons and Max Fearman at the Jennie Edmundson Memorial hospital by his diligence and efficiency is evidently trying to make his services almost indispensable.

Mr. Hines, confined at the Memorial hospital for some months with a fractured leg is rapidly improving, and Thomas H. Jones, recently confined here with vertigo, is again in the field.

A matter of chief moment here is the replacement of several white mail clerks, who were recently convicted of robbing the mails and sent to Leavenworth, by colored mail clerks at the Union Pacific transfer. The complete story will be given in a subsequent issue.

THE COLORED COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Colored Commercial Club held an animated and enthusiastic meeting last Monday night at the Club rooms at 2414 Maple street. E. W. Pryor presided. It was decided to have more public meetings with addresses from prominent speakers. The membership committee recommended dropping from the roll all delinquent members. Certain modifications in the constitution and by-laws were suggested but no action was taken thereupon. At a previous meeting of the Club a committee consisting of Calvin Spriggs and Nate Hunter was appointed to visit the business enterprises conducted by our group in the city.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

Sunday after the close of the eleven o'clock service the members of the congregation who will make the Every Member Canvass will have lunch at the rectory, leaving therefrom to visit every member of the congregation between the hours of 2 and 4 for their pledge of personal service and their subscriptions.

The offering at the eleven o'clock service will be for the Old Folks Home, the only charitable institution supported by our race in the city.

NOTICE—CORNER STONE LAYING

Corner stone laying of Bethel A. M. E. church by the Grand Lodge of Nebraska and its Masonic jurisdiction, will take place Sunday, Dec. 3. All Master Masons in good standing are invited to meet at Masonic Hall, 24th and Parker, at 1:30 P. M. W. P. Wade, D. D. G. M.; R. H. Young, G. M.; Walter Seals, D. G. M.; M. L. Wilson, Grand Secretary.

WILL PRESENT PUPILS IN PIANOFORTE RECITAL

Mrs. Florentine F. Pinkston, the well-known and successful music teacher, will present her pupils in pianoforte recital at the North End Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon, Dec. 3. These recitals are always musical treats which lovers of music fully appreciate.

Letters From Our Readers

THE OLD FOLKS' HOME

Rev. John Albert Williams, Editor The Monitor, Omaha, Nebraska.

Dear Sir:

For some time I have been giving consideration to the needs of the Old Folks' Home. This institution needs the attention of the general public. I made a trip to the Home to find out the conditions. One would have a different feeling were he to make a tour of inspection. As you know the building is old and badly in need of repair. The location is bad and doubtless was not taken into consideration at the time of buying. While it is not so piped that it can be relied upon in cold weather to furnish sufficient heat for the old people that are living there. The living rooms on the second floor are occupied by the inmates and the matron has to live on the main floor using a cot or davenport due to the size of the home. There have been some minor improvements since the home was bought. The board is due much credit for the good work that has been done but I feel that I could be of much service were I a member of that board.

I have noticed how poorly the halls given for the Home have been attended and am of the opinion that if an earnest appeal was made to the general public it would have some bearing. There has not been enough cooperation and it might be that the "object" has not been fully explained to the public. I feel that the public would attend and the proceeds could be used to buy a supply of food for the winter.

The Home has three inmates and a matron and is overcrowded. I have not gone into the full details of how the Home is maintained but feel that it is a worthy cause and needs the co-operation of every race loving Negro in the city of Omaha. For years it has been my pleasure to send out supplies on Thanksgiving and Xmas and I have planned the same this year. I know that others feel as I do about the Home and believe that we can get together and make this Home one of which we all should feel proud. I do not know the number of members on the board but am willing to offer my service to the board as a member if there is a vacancy and the laws of the institution will not be violated by my appointment at this time.

I would not advocate the buying or building of another Home at this time, as building material is on the upward trend but that is what is really needed. If the members of the board feel that my appointment as a member would be beneficial I offer my services.

Faithfully yours,
 JOHN BROOMFIELD.
