Sunday was a busy and interesting day with this congregation. Many of the members went to Lincoln, but their places were taken by visitors who are always welcome. At three o'clock members of the congregation attended the quarterly meeting at St. New York City, Dec. 1.—Among M. Harris preached a helpful sermon John's Church. At 7 p. m. the Rev. P. Thanksgiving Day was marked by services at eleven, followed by dinner served until late at night, well attended and much e njoyed. Members of Allen who are on the sick list are Mrs. Frankie Redd, 6613 Railroad Avenue, who had quite a serious fall into her cellar; Mother Hannah Helm; Mrs. Tollie Stearns and Mrs. Pinkie Snell, who was bitten by a dog.

> NEGRO WOMEN CHRISTIAN HOME ASSOCIATION

The Negro Women's Christian Home Association will hold its regular monthly meeting, Dec. 6th, at the Old Folks Home. All members are urged to be present as business of importance is to be transacted. A life size portrait of the late Silas Johnson, one of the Home's staunchest friends, will be presented at that time. The portrait is the gift of Mr. Johnson's niece, Miss Mary Lue Brookings, William Coston, the family of the Rev. Russell Taylor, and Mrs. Theodocia Scroggins. Recent donations to the Home include rag rugs and two hens fro Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Johnson, and two hens' from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fredericks. Announcement is made that John H. Broomfield and William Coston have been added to the advisory board.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS "QUARANTINE"

THE origin of a term of 40 days-a "quarantine"-as a sanitary precaution against the spread of various diseases is lost in the dim mazes of early oriental history. Forty days was the period devoted in ancient times to the burial of the dead The spies of the Israelites spent 40 days in Canaan before they submitted the report. Jonah gave the residents of Nineweh 40 days in which to consider his prophecy and repent. Christ, Moses and Elljah each fasted for 40 days-the Christian observance of Lent being a commemoration of the most notable of these. Under William the Conqueror no man was permitted to remain in England more than 40 days without paying a tax Magna Charta It is provided that a widow shall remain 40 days in the house of her deceased husband before being allotted her dowry.

The modern sanitary adaptation of the quarantine was es-tablished by the French along the Mediterranean in order to prevent the introduction of plague from the eastern countries, but apparently the only reason for the arbitrary setting of such a "time is that it forms one of the periods resulting from a division of the lunar year by the mystic number nine.
