THE WESTERN "U" CLUB ENTERTAINS PRESIDENT

The Western University Club, which is composed of about twenty-five alumni of Western University, gave a reception last Saturday night at the North End "Y" complimentary to the Rev. F. Jesse Peck, president of the University. Mr. Carey was master of ceremonies. An interesting program of music, recitations, and brief addresses, with school songs and 'varsity yells, were features of the evening. Among those taking part in the program were the Misses Aline Bentley, Darlene Duval, Louveta Busch, and Messrs J. C. Parker, Harold Bentley, president of the Club; Rev. W. C. Williams, Dr. A. L. Hawkins and Rev. John Albert Williams. Dr. Peck expressed his appreciation of the honor shown him by the alumni and told of the progress and ideals of the "U". MUSIC PUPILS' RECITAL IS DECIDED SUCCESS

The sixth public recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Florentine F. Pinkston last Saturday afternoon at the North End "Y" was a decided success, thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience of parents and friends, and reflected great credit upon both pupils and teacher. Space will not permit the insertion of the entire program, which was a varied one, embracing from elementary work to the most difficult classical selections. Every participant showed diligent and painstaking work. The pupils presented were: Verney Johnson, who showed proficiency in drill on key signatures and ear training by the Solfeggio method; Frances D. Gordon and Lucy Mae Allen in accompaniment work; Ruth Campbell, Grace Smith, Matelle Johnson, Marie Smith, Louise Pryor, Mrs. Thompson, Vera Walton, Constance Singleton, Wave Shaw, Zoella Washington, Mabel Ray, Grace Adams, Catherine Williams, Della Howard, Robbie Turner and Aline Burnett. Among the numbers given with excellent interpretation, were the Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana, Mascagni; Danse Syrienne, Michels; Pearly Dew Drop, Birbeck; Butterflies, Lege; Chant San Paroles, Leschetizky; Polka, Spindler; Burgmuller, Opus 109, No. 2; Edelweiss Glide, Venderbeck; Chanson Triste, Tchaikovsky; Pense Romantique, Cramer; I Love Thee, Grieg; and Preludes Nos. 20, 21, Chopin. An interesting feature of the recital was the selection given by the Misses Gordon and Allen of the accompaniment class assisted by the juvenile orchestra, directed by Clarence Desdunes.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE N. A. A. C. P. MEETS

Russell Taylor, Chairman. On Monday night the executive committee of the N. A. A. C. P. met in the rooms of the St. Benedict Community House. Most of the members were present and many important matters were discussed and steps taken toward definite action along lines of letterment of certain conditions insidiously encroaching upon some of our privileges.

The following resolution, offered by the chairman, was after considerable discussion, adopted with only a few dissenting votes:

Whereas, the attendance at the meetings of this association is not now nor for sometime has been as we who have the best interest of the association and community at heart desire it to be, and,

Whereas, not a few influential persons, whose interest in the Race and the association cannot reasonably be doubted, have stated many times that the present arrangement of the meetings of the branch are such that they cannot well attend without serious neglect of their own work, therefore,

Be It Resolved,—1. That beginning the first of the year 1923 the Omaha Branch of the N. A. A. C. P. meet the third Sunday of each month in a regular forum;

Resolved—2. That in order to allay the constant confusion caused by the constant change of the meeting place, that this monthly meeting be held at some centrally located place, such as the Grove Methodist Church;

Resolved—3. That the Chairmen of the several committees be, with the president and secretary, a committee to arrange suitable programs for these monthly meetings.
