sent excellent exhibits to the Virginia State Fair at Richmond and the Tidewater Fair at Suffolk.

The ranking Negro Club boys of Virginia were: Pickett Pannell of Elk Hill, who raised 78 bushels of Boone county corn, at a cost of 45c per bushel, and made a net profit of $66.05; Jack Brown of Surry, who raised 72 bushels of peanuts and 1200 pounds of hay at a cost of 46c per bushel, and made a net profit of $76.25; James Tucker of Dewitt, who raised 70 bushels of potatoes at a cost of 20c per bushel, and made a net profit of $56; and Pucell Bland of Dendron, who fattened a six-dollar pig so as to gain a profit of $25.20.

SUGAR-FOOT SNOWBALL COMING TO THE GAYETY

Famous Colored "Harmonica Playing Fool" Featured With "Hippity Hop" Show.

"Hippity Hop", a show title indicating the speed and smartness of Peck & Kolb's offering at the popular Gayety theatre week startin Saturday matinee, will have MacAllister and Shannon as featured principals in a company numbering close to fifty experienced burlesquers and comedy purveyors. Because of the gorgeousness of the costuming and the large and active assemblage of pretty girls to wear the many changes in raiment the daily matinees are expected to be of unusual appeal to the ladies who delight in the newest fashions and thrills of expert costume designers.

In the company will be a score of dancing show girls to lift the many musical numbers into prominence as mediums of entertainment. The producers declare that expense has been the least consideration in equipping with costumes, scenery and draperies this new offering. Mattie DeLece, prima donna; Kitty Madison, soprano; Irene Leary and Nina Mack, ingenues, and Alliene Rogers, comedienne, will each step forward during the passing scenes as leaders of the show girls in song and dance numbers that have been staged with novel effects.

Matt Kolb has complied "Hippity Hop" with a view to getting the last ounce of entertainment out of the dozen talented principals. As a result double value will be contributed by MacAllister and Shannon and their leading supporters. The featured comedians will be seen in a series of ridiculously funny antics; Joe Forte and Alliene Rogers will present a musical oddity titled "My Idea of a Girl". Harold Carr and Kitty Madison will provide a singing and dancing novelty of speed and gingery action. Mattie DeLece, the prima donna, will feature a song specialty in which her selection of standard melodies will display to full advantage the beauty and range of her remarkable soprano voice. Sugar-Foot Snowball, colored "Harmonica Playing Fool", is an added specialist.

"Hippity Hop" will be shown in two acts and fourteen scenes. Sunday's matinee starts at 3:00.

ADVENT SERVICES ARE WELL ATTENDED

Sunday Afternoon the Rev. D. J. Gallagher, Rector of St. Andrew's, Will Be the Special Preacher at St. Philip's Church.

The congregation, according to custom, generously remembered the pastor and his family Thanksgiving Day.

The special Advent services being held at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, began last Sunday with a large attendance both morning and afternoon. At the 5 o'clock vesper service the Very Rev. Stephen E. McGinley, dean of Trinity cathedral, preached an excellent sermon. This was followed by a pleasant social hour at the rectory. Next Sunday the special preacher at the 5 o'clock vesper service will be the Rev. D. J. Gallagher, rector of St. Andrew's. The service will be followed by a social hour in the Guild Room. At the 11 o'clock Eucharist Father Williams will preach his second sermon on "When the King Comes".

Monday night the Men's Club will meet at the Rectory at 8 o'clock. The Girls' Friendly Society meets Monday afternoon, the Altar Guild Tuesday night and the Woman's Auxiliary Thursdays afternoon.
