E. F. Morearty, Lawyer, 700 Peters Trust building, Jackson 3841 or Harney 2156.

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished modern rooms, one block from car line. Webster 3567.

Mrs. Dudley Anderson is quite ill at her home, 1514 Jackson street, with an attack of the flu.

D. G. Russell who was confined to his home for nearly three weeks is again able to be at his place of business.

Mrs. Rosa J. Anderson of 1809 North Twenty-third street, who has been confined to her bed with a slight attack of lagrippe, is some better now.

Miss Georgia Bynum of Chicago, Ill., formerly of Omaha, is convalescing nicely in the University hospital where she underwent a serious operation two weeks ago.

The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, state missionary of the Baptist church, returned Tuesday from Beatrice and reported good service. He raised $70 for the local work. He left Wednesday night for Hastings.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished rooms in private family. Webster 5853.

H. K. Perry returned Tuesday night from a pleasant two weeks' visit to Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago.

Mrs. Edith Reese has resumed housekeeping at her home, 2723 Miami street, which she had rented out for several months.

Mrs. Effie Dudley, state grand scribe of the M. T. of A., who was quite ill at the Lord Lister hospital for three weeks, returned to her home, 2524 No. 25th street, last Saturday, where she is steadily improving.

Dr. W. W. Peebles was detained at his home for several days last week with an attack of grip. He has been able to resume his dental practice at his office this week, much to his delight and that of his patients.

Mr. Charles H. Hicks celebrated his birthday anniversary March 1. He looks so young that he has decided to let his friends guess his age.

The Rev. William C. Williams, pastor of St. John's A. M. E. church, has returned from a trip to California much improved in health and has resumed his pastoral duties.

Madam Anita Patti Brown, who has recently returned from Europe, will be heard in recital at Zion Baptist church next Thursday night. She is one of the leading artists of the race.

SMARTER SET SOCIETY

The members of the Smarter Set Society gave a party at the residence of Mrs. Massey on Corby street. Miss Alberta Brown was the successful hostess. The evening was spent delightfully with music and games. The house was decorated with George Washington decorations and each guest received a George Washington cap. The refreshments served were very dainty. The music was furnished by Mrs. Freeman.

EXCLUSIVE PANTS STORE

Panting pantless people is their speciality. Cohn brothers, two genial young men, have opened up something new in Omaha. It is an exclusive pants shop. The largest west of the Mississippi. This Pants Store is located at 121 North Sixteenth street, just opposite the post office. They are prepared to match any coat or vest with trousers from their large stock. Drop in and see them. They appreciate your trade and show that they want it by carrying an "ad" in your paper.

QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN

The annual "Quiet Day" for women will be held next Thursday at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon from nine-thirty a. m. to three-thirty p. m. by the Rev. Father Lee of Plattsmouth. Holy Communion at nine-thirty, meditations or addresses at 10:30, 11:30, 2:00 and 3:00.

For news when it is news, you must read the Monitor.

THE NEGRO WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Directors and Advisory Board of Old Folks Home will hold their monthly meeting Monday evening, Mar. 5th, at the home of Mrs. Martha Taylor Smith, 1920 North 34th street.

The chairman of the Rustling Committee will be prepared to give in detail the plans for starting the drive for the new home.

Regular monthly meeting of the Home Wednesday morning, March 7th, at 10:30 a. m. Fire which broke out at the Home last Friday only damaged the roof slightly.

We hope that all members of the Board and Home will show their interest by attending the meetings mentioned on above dates.—Elizabeth M. Reed, Corresponding Secretary, 2635 Franklin street.

FIRE ENDANGERS FAMILIES

A fire which resulted from the explosion of a gasoline stove in a small room occupied as a stove repair shop at 1150 North Twentieth street Tuesday night endangered the lives of several families at Twentieth and Paul streets. The flat occupied by Miss Mamie Byers was badly damaged and she lost her personal effects, as did also Mr. and Mrs. Washington, who lived down stairs. The cottage occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Neal, 2103 Paul, was also damaged. Had it not been for the prompt action of the fire department the entire block of poorly constructed frame dwellings would be destroyed.

McCLURE, SHOT BY WIFE, DIES

Mrs. Effie McClure, who shot her husband last Thursday in a quarrel at the Kandy Kitchen, a confectionery store on North Twenty-fourth street, of which they were proprietors, has been held for manslaughter as the result of the coroner's inquest held last Monday. Her husband, Charles B. McClure, died Saturday afternoon at the Lord Lister hospital. Mrs. McClure was remanded to the Douglas County jail and bound over to the District Court for trial. She was released on bond Thursday.

ATTENDS NEPHEW'S FUNERAL

A. L. Bowler was called to Lawrence, Kansas, last week to attend the funeral of his nephew, Prof. Jos. L. Bowler, a prominent educator and former teacher in Sumner High School, St. Louis, Mo.

Love—"Bedouin" and Otherwise.
 "In love, man is so simple, woman so wise. Man blunders along, taking his chance as to whether he shall find favor or give offense; woman alone knows when the great moment has come, that moment when the time and the place and the person are plaited into the perfect pattern."—From "Bedouin Love," by Arthur Weigall.

Error Common to Humanity.
 The only people who make no mistakes are dead people. I saw a man last week who has not made a mistake for four thousand years. He was a mummy in the Egyptian department of the British museum.—H. L. Wayland.

Which is the Heaviest Metal?
 There are dozens of metals lighter than aluminum. Iridium, one of the lightest, has only one-fifth of the weight of aluminum. Gold, almost twice as heavy as lead, is not the heaviest. Platinum and tridium are heavier.

Wants to Share His Joy.
 The man who, after passing you by for ten years, suddenly greets you by our name hasn't been reading an editorial on courtesy. He has just been nominated for something.—New York Tribune

Unhappily Truth.
 How small is our knowledge in comparison with our ignorance.—Baster.
