N. A. A. C. P. PARTICIPATES IN CONFERENCE OF CIVIL RIGHTS BODIES

New York, April 6.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was represented at an all-race conference held in New York City on March 23 and 24, and participated in by the following organizations: The African Blood Brotherhood, The Friends of Negro Freedom, The International Uplift League, The National Equal Rights League and the National Race Congress.

At this conference Negro leaders met, discussed plans for working in harmony and issued and signed a concordat calling for common support by all organizations of the various undertakings for the uplift and betterment of the Negro in America. It is planned to enroll in the all-race movement, organizations of every sort, including religious, fraternal, social, educational, business and labor and the press.

Speaking for the N. A. A. C. P., James Weldon Johnson said in part:

"We can do two things here. We can exchange ideas, or we can attempt to accomplish something. Both things are good. We must bear in mind, however, that in the exchange of ideas there is no limit, but in accomplishment we are confronted by conditions.

"As to actual accomplishments, what can this conference do? The signing of a concordat is one thing. We have very often been handicapped among colored people themselves by the reports that there was antagonism between the leaders. This is not so true as has been noised about. If we ever feel that the Negro is going to be one unified mass, however, we are bound to be disappointed, because he is a human being even before he is a Negro, and we are going to have human differences. Nevertheless the opinion that a great amount of discord exists between the leaders has done us a great deal of harm. This conference can accomplish much by sending out to the Negroes of the United States the inspiring news that the leaders have gotten together, allowing for differences of opinion, and are working for a common end."

At the A. M. E. church early services were attended by a fair crowd, with preaching by the pastor. The Sunday school and A. C. E. societies had fine services. In the evening the church choir rendered their Easter Cantata, and it was enjoyed by the audience.

The statutory case of Dr. A. Porter Davis of Kansas City on the person of Miss Beatrice H. Rollins, was tried in Judge Stewart's court last week. After the arguments the case went to the jury and that body was out twenty hours without a verdict. The doctor was released pending further decision by the court. He returned to Kansas City last Saturday.

Easter Sunday being an ideal day all churches celebrated the resurrection of Christ in many different ways, services being at sunrise and at intervals during the day. At Mt. Zion Baptist church were early services, preaching by the pastor at 6:00 a. m. Sunday school at 10:00 followed by a glorious covenant meeting B. Y. J. U. at 6:30 p. m., followed by a unique program by Bude of Promise, composed of small girls and boys, and aided by several older persons, and under the direction of Mrs. M. Todd. Communion was partaken of by a large number of the members. The revival meeting closed Sunday.

Lebanon Lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M., had a rousing meeting in their hall last Tuesday. The occasion was the raising of a class of twelve men to the sublime degree of Master Masons, and the annual visit of the M. W. G. M., R. H. Young. The men were all present, having made suitable proficiency in the preceding degrees. After the work and luncheon Mr. Young was escorted to the room, being announced by the W. M., C. T. Denton, who handed him the gavel. The lodge received him with enthusiasm. He made encouraging remarks to which all applauded. Visitors present were M. W. D. G. M. W. L. Seals, C. C. Dudley, Robert Spence and T. F. Scott, of Omaha.

DODGE MARKET WILL OPEN SAT.

When the Dodge Market, 113 North Sixteenth street, opens its doors for business Saturday, the people of Omaha will see the latest ideas in the meat, grocery, bakery and fish departments.

The entire store outside of the shelves is made of a grayish marble, with a complete refrigeration plant built in the cases so that the proper temperature can be secured in the handling of each of the different departments. A small aquarium will be built in the rear of the store where shoppers can pick out fresh fish if they choose. Game fish and sea foods will also be carried in season.

A cake four feet long and five feet high, said to be the biggest cake ever baked in the city, will be on display during the week in the window.

Other departments in the store will be a meat department fifty feet long, one of the largest in the city, an up-to-date fruit department, and an egg and produce department.

Jake Ross, manager of the store, said Saturday that the investment of the new market would be about $55,000.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES
By O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor Allen Chapel

Under the superintendency of Mrs. Sadie Divers, the acting secretary of the Colored Branch of the Y. W. C. A., some things are being accomplished for the good and development of the members of this local branch. They have just closed a week's convention in which Miss Cordelia Wynn, a national worker from New York City, gave a series of lectures that not only brought inspiration to these noble women whose lives are wrapped up in the uplift of young womanhood of the race, but she laid down a principle which if followed out cannot help but solve that spirit of disinterest that characterizes too many of the workers along these lines. She proved that no one ever accomplished anything of worth until they became enthused over the matter, until they were willing to put their hearts and minds into the work; then and not till then could they expect favorable results from the efforts put forth.

CONGREGATION WORSHIPS IN NEW ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Large Congregations Present and Impressive Services Are Held

Easter 1923 was a day of great happiness and rejoicing among the members of St. John's A. M. E. Church, and will go down in history as a red letter day among African Methodists in this city.

At 10:00 A. M. the congregation, 500 strong, led by the Pastor ev. W. C. Williams, the Assistant Pastor Rev. John Adams, followed by the choir, the entire official family and auxiliaries, marched from the old church at 25th and Grant streets to 22nd and Willis Ave., where for the first time they worshipped in the spacious basement of the new church which is being erected there.

The church was tastily decorated with Palms and Easter flowers. The services were impressive. A great concourse of more than 1,000 persons heard the Rev. John Adams preach a magnificent sermon from the text, "Why Seek Ye the Living Midst the Dead?"

At 2:30 P. M. the Sunday school rendered a special Easter program, "Easter Day in Pantomime," given by 25 scholars under the direction of Miss Gertrude Lucas and Mrs. William Ricks.

The evening services were held in the old church at which time a drama "The First Easter Day" was presented, with special music by the choir.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
25th and R Sts. Market 3475

O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor

Easter was a great day at Allen. The pastor preached night and morning from the text, "He is Not Here, But is Risen." Large congregations attended both services. The regular Easter program will be given Sunday at 7:00 P. M. All are invited to be present and encourage the children. The Senior Choir sings at 11 A. M. and the Juniors at the evening services.

Jacob Showers, an aged man of our church, was run over by an auto and his leg was broken as a result. He is now at St. Joseph's Hospital getting along nicely.

Mrs. Anna Johnson was able to be out Sunday morning.

N. A. A. C. P.

Mr. Walter F. White, assistant secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., has been in the city for the purpose of awakening interest in that worthy institution.

He addressed a group of ministers at the Ministerial Alliance Tuesday morning. Tuesday evening he addressed a representative group of citizens at the St. Paul Presbyterian Church.

There are many things both locally and nationally of so great moment to our group which this organization looks after that it seems unthinkable that so little attention is paid to it in our city.
