ALLEN CHAPEL MEMBERS SURPRISE THEIR PASTOR

After Rev. O. J. Burkhardt and wife had spent a very pleasant day Tuesday visiting friends they returned to the parsonage about 8 p. m. and in a very short time were agreeably surprised by hearing a company of people just outside of the door singing, "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" and the strange thing about the affair was that Mr. Burkhardt had been so absorbed in other matters that this being his birthday had completely left his mind. But Mrs. Laura Jefferson, chairman of the stewardess board, and Elizabeth Clark, president of the Booster club, had communicated with Deaconess Sarah Severe and other members of the church and had planned the surprise and arranged the program for the occasion. After a banquet of plenty of ice cream and cake there were some very good and timely remarks made by Rev. P. M. Harris and Mr. Whitlow and Mrs. Burkhardt and husband, after which Mrs. Jefferson presented the pastor with a nice purse for which he was very thankful, and Miss Ruby Reed presented him with a book that is of great worth to a minister's library. The pastor's only grievance is, that it will be another year before he can have another birthday.

MRS. LAURA JEFFERSON.
