Mrs. John W. Gatus has been confined to her home for several days with an attack of lumbago.

Mrs. Fred Divers and her mother, Mrs. Davis, have gone for an extended trip to Georgia.

The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Baptist state missionary, has not had four successive days at home for three months. He arrived from Hastings Monday night and will preach Sunday for the seventh successive time the annual sermon of the G. U. O. of O. F. He helped Calvary church in a financial effort Thursday and Friday and St. Mary's Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rev. John Albert Williams and family were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shipman.

Sheep gang No. 1 of Swift's packing house has just presented E. Phinney of 1115 North Twenty-first street who has been ill for several weeks, with the sum of $15.10 which he greatly appreciates. He is improving and hopes to be able to go to work soon.

Mrs. Theo. Thomas, 2312 North Twenty-seventh street, entertained Thursday afternoon, April 26th, in honor of Mrs. S. S. Roland of St. Paul, Minn. Those present were: Mrs. Chas. Felix, Mrs. Cleota Ferguson-Reynolds, Mrs. J. T. Scott, Mrs. Essie Bell, Mrs. E. Gates and Mrs. C. E. Duncan. A three-course lunch was served in a very artistic manner after which the party departed much pleased to have met Mrs. Roland and each declared Mrs. Thomas a most wonderful hostess.

The Rev. W. F. Botts, pastor of Zion Baptist church, leaves next week for Los Angeles, Calif., where he will conduct an evangelistic campaign at the Second Baptist church for the Rev. T. L. Griffin. He will return June 1.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Muckleroy, daughter of Mrs. E. S. Hunt of 2409 Caldwell street, who died in Kansas City, Mo., last week, after a protracted illness, was held from the Western Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon. Interment was at Forest Lawn.

WOMEN ORGANIZE SOCIAL CLUB

Pour le Bien is the name of a new social club which has been organized by some of the women of St. Philip's Episcopal Church. The club plans to give a series of social affairs and entertainments at stated intervals. The first of the series will be a May Party and Dance at Turpin's hall, Thursday, May 24th. The name means "For the Good" and not "Poor Beans", as one of the unenlightened mistranslated it.

GIVE DINNER FOR DR. HARPER
Mr. and Mrs. George Young entertained at dinner last Friday at their residence, 208 South Twenty-seventh street, complimentary to the Rev. Dr. Harper of Houston, Texas, who conducted a successful revival at Zion Baptist church. The other guests present were the Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Botts, the Rev. Messrs. William Franklin, E. H. McDonald, J. Bruce, J. M. McFarland, Mrs. Lucinda Davis and Mrs. Llewellyn.

KELLOM SCHOOL HAS FIELD DAY

Last Monday morning Kellom school held its first field day and athletic contest. A more enthusiastic crowd of athletes and rooters would have been difficult to find. There were several events such as 50, 60, 75 and 100-yard dashes for boys and girls of various ages. Relay races, potato races, shuttle races and 240-yard dashes for the older boys. Several boys and girls of our group were among the winners of first, second and third honors. G. D. Gepson, the principal, and Miss Wynn, the minute, but mighty physical culture director, who had planned the events, were well pleased with the outcome. It was a delight and inspiration to see this lusty bunch of young Americans of various nationalities enthusiastically competing for honors for their class or room. The best of order and good will prevailed.

WEDDING BELLS RING FOR A HAPPY PAIR

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Phillips, 3013 Franklin street, was the scene Thursday night of a pretty wedding when Miss Jessie Buford, sister of Mrs. Phillips, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Thomas in the presence of a large company of friends and well-wishers of nuptial happiness. Miss Theodocia Taylor was bridesmaid and Mr. Milton Williams, groomsmen. The flower girls were Loraine Fletcher and Rosalie Jones and the ring bearer, Louise Fletcher. The Rev. W. C. Williams, pastor of St. John's A. M. E. church, performed the ceremony.

PRESENTS PUPILS IN PIANO-FORTE RECITAL AND CONTEST

Mrs. Jack Pinkston will present the following pupils in pianoforte recital at Zion Baptist Church, Twenty-second and Grant streets, next Friday night May 18, at 8 o'clock: the Misses Alene Bentley, Frances D. Gordon and Lucy Mae Allen. These are advanced students whose program will constitute a rare musical treat. The following pupils will be presented in a contest: Wave Shaw, Grace Adams and Della Howard. The entire program will delight music lovers. There is no admission or collection and the public is cordially invited. This musical event ought to pack the church as an encouragement to teacher and pupils.

PROMISING BOY IS CALLED BY DEATH

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. James, 4421 South Twenty-sixth street, were shocked to hear of the death early Wednesday morning of their only child, Thomas, a bright and promising boy not quite six years old. Thomas became ill with the flu about ten days ago and was believed to be recovering and entirely out of danger. He expired suddenly about half past one o'clock Wednesday morning. Thomas was a great favorite and his unexpected death is sincerely mourned. The funeral will be held from the Church of St. Philip the Deacon Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

25th and R Streets—Tel. Market 3475
O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor.

Where are you going Sunday? To church, of course. What is the occasion? Don't you know it's Mother's Day and every intelligent man and woman in Omaha who has love and respect for the memory of that precious Mother who has entered into eternal life will be at some church Sunday. Don't you also know that those whose mothers are living, out of respect and gratitude of their hearts for the pains and toils their mothers have endured to make life worth while, will be at church as a token of appreciation for the same. Yes, they will be there unless there are conditions over which they have no control to prevent them, and then we are sure they will put forth a supreme effort to remove any obstacle before they will be satisfied not to come.

Sunday was a great day with us. Rev. P. M. Harris preached at 8 p. m. on "Loyalty to Christ".

On Mother's Day the pastor will preach morning and evening. At the 11 a. m. service the subject will be "A Mother's Love" and at 8 p. m., "A Mother's Worth". We are expecting a crowded house.

J. B. Thomas is getting on nicely at St. Joseph's hospital. Mother Gray and Helm are able to be out to church.

Sarah Jones is yet bothered with rheumatism.

CHIROPRACTOR COMES TO CITY

Fred W. Sargent, D. C., the new chiropractor from California, whose card appears elsewhere in this issue, has recently opened his office at 2906 Leavenworth street, suite 10, this city, and will be pleased to see any of the patrons of The Monitor or their friends, concerning their health. He treats for all diseases by the latest, natural, up-to-date methods that have proven so successful. He has had seven years of experience and brings the best of references. His office hours are from 2:30 to 7:30 p. m. or by appointment in the office or at your home. Phone Harney 8042 for further information. Consultation is free.
