ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

25th and R. Sts. Market 3475
O. J. Burkhardt, Pastor
A splendid day and a nice attendance marked last Sunday. The morning message from the text, "Hinder me Not," was followed by one of those over-flow spiritual meetings where men and women were not excited by emotion but moved to joy by an operation of the Holy Spirit functioning in their lives, which will always bring joy to the possessor. The evening service was likewise interesting. Next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. the Rev. Mr. Rucker, of St. Louis, will preach. He is a great singer and preacher. At 7:30 Rev. W. S. Metcalf will preach.

All will express regret about John Ward's departure from the city and of his worth to the church and community. The Sunday School superintendent, William Carter, is arranging for the District Conference. Allen Chapel members will be very busy this coming month. The Quarterly Meeting, Children's Day and the Stewards and Trustees' Rally. J. B. Shower is still improving. Mrs. Sarah Jones and Mother Gray are indisposed but are some better at this writing.

ROOSEVELT POST HOLDS SUCCESSFUL RALLY
The Theodore Roosevelt Post held a very successful rally at South's restaurant last Saturday evening. A great number of ex-service men were present and many rousing speeches were made upon some of the most vital questions affecting our group. The membership of the Post was largely increased and all are asked to attend the next meeting and bring a fellow service man with you. All ex-service men are requested to take part in the Decoration Day parade. Wear your uniforms if you have them, if not, come anyway and pay tribute during this hour to your departed pal. Great doings at next meeting at South's restaurant, 2418 N. 24th St., on Saturday, June 2nd. Rufus Long, Adjutant. W. W. Peebles, Post Commander.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. Frederick Divers, Pastor
The services were well attended last Sunday and the pastor gave another of his series of sermons on the Book of Daniel from the subject, "Nebuchadnezzar's Tree-Vision," and it seems to have been highly appreciated. In the afternoon the Daughters of Bethel had the Annual sermon preached at the church by the pastor. Rev. J. S. Woods, Evangelist of the Chicago A. M. E. Conference, is now conducting a revival. You should hear Dr. Woods for he knows what he is about. He will give his famous lecture at the close of the evangelistic campaign, subject, "Why I am an Optimist."

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON AFRICA

St. John's A. M. E. church was crowded to capacity Wednesday night when Bishop W. T. Vernon gave his interesting illustrated lecture on Africa. The lecture had a distinct educational value and could have no other effect than that of quickening interest in the people of the "Dark Continent" and awakening all to a realization of their kinship to our group in that interesting land.

MILTON MAYER OPENS NEW LOCATION

Milton Mayer, the popular young merchant, who has a large patronage among our people, is opening a new store, carrying a full line of men's clothing at 1406 North 24th, where he will be pleased to see all his old patrons and several new ones. He is always the same genial, courteous Milton.

PICNIC FOR TEXANS

To All Texans: There will be a picnic given in our honor at Thirty-third and Emmett street, June 19, under the auspices of the Spring Hill Baptist church. As it is desired to reach all Texans, persons from that state will confer a favor by sending their names and addresses to 3220 Pinkney street or by calling Kenwood 5541.

Grand Installation

Knights and Daughters of Tabor
CITY AUDITORIUM
Tuesday, May 29 AT 9:00 P. M.
SIR A. M. HARROLD, C. G. M.

Founders' Day exercises will be conducted by the Mosaic Templars Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Pleasant Green Baptist church. Rev. John Albert Williams has been invited to deliver the principal address.

The Knights and Daughters of Tabor will hold their annual installation of officers next Tuesday night at the City Auditorium at 9 o'clock.

Ask your grocer and other firms whom you patronize, if they advertise in your race paper? You can help your race publications in this way. Patronize the people who show they want your patronage by dividing their patronage with race publications. Why should we always be giving and getting nothing in return?

All high school graduates are requested to meet at the North End "Y" Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock to take up business of importance.

Crinklaw's, formerly the Bernstein Big Little Department Store, at 1806 North Twenty-fourth St., report a nice business in spite of unfavorable weather. Mr. and Mrs. Crinklaw are old hands in the dry goods game, and thoroughly understand the needs of the buying public. Readers of The Monitor are urged to read their advertisement in this issue, and acquaint themselves with the opportunities mentioned for buying seasonable merchandise at right prices.

Mrs. Buford Phoenix, 1412 North Twenty-sixth street, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Swedish Mission hospital, is steadily improving at her home, but she has not fully regained her strength.

Mrs. Frederick Divers, wife of the pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, and her mother, Mrs. Davis, who were called to Augusta, Ga., a few weeks ago on business, are expected home within the next fortnight.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. E. H. McDonald, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.
Morning service, 11:00 a. m.
B. Y. P. U. 6 p. m.
Evening services 8:00 p. m.
The morning services last Sunday were well attended. Rev. E. H. McDonald preached on "The Debt of Obligation." At the evening service he again delivered a message of special interest, his subject being "The Three Doors."

The church is looking forward to a great rally which will culminate the first Sunday in June. The Swastika Art Club will give a grand bazaar May 24th, 25th and 26th. Each evening the bazaar will be opened by a drama entitled "The Milk Maids' Convention." The public is cordially invited.

Volney Carter returned from a pleasant trip with relatives and friends in Kansas and Missouri last week and resumed his run on the Overland Limited Saturday night after a most enjoyable vacation.

Mrs. William H. Newsom has returned from a delightful visit to her mother in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Amos Bostic left the city last Saturday afternoon over the Wabash by way of St. Louis, Mo., for Nashville, Tenn., his old home, to attend the funeral of his brother. It had been seven years since Mr. Bostic was home. He planned to visit his relatives and friends there in August.
