EDWIN HUNTLEY, EDITOR OF THE MEDIATOR, IMPROVING

Edwin Huntley, the well-known editor of The Mediator, the Omaha weekly which makes the people sit up and take notice, and who some months ago had a paralytic stroke, is slowly improving. He is now at the office daily and puts over a good deal of work. Always active he finds trying to take it easy the hardest kind of work. Fortunately he retains his cheerful disposition and this will go a long way in restoring him to the health which his many friends hope to see him still enjoy. His brother Frank is making good in handling The Mediator.

FRANCE TRAINING 1,000,000 COLORED TROOPS, REPORT

London, England, June 22.—London is much worked up over the appearance of a story printed in Lord Riddell's newspaper, News of the World, to the effect that France is training one million black soldiers in the French colonies in Africa.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

We as Baptist workers feel that it is a part of our duty, to utter unselfishness and willingness and even a desire to be used, for the glory of God and the good of others. Therefore, everyone is more than welcome to attend. Our Sunday school is divided into three divisions, each having a superintendent. The groups are: Adults, Seniors and Juniors, the latter including primary and beginners. There are sixteen classes with ten pupils in each.

The Home Department, an organization of the Sunday school, is also an interesting department, which performs its duty with those who have not found Christ. It has a membership of one hundred and twenty-five. The attendance for the past Sunday was two hundred and two, with a collection of sixteen dollars and ninety four cents.

We also have a faithful mother, Mrs. Ingram, with us who is now one hundred and eight, and says she is neither tired or weary of being a member.—Miss Collier.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

25th and R Streets—Tel. Market 3475 —O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor.

Sunday was children's day. The committee in charge was Mrs. Melessa Carter and Frankie Redd. The pastor's sermon at 11 a. m. was from Psalm 127:3. Children are an heritage of the Lord. He showed the importance of reproduction on the part of our race if we ever expected to be great factor in the world. He denounced the sin of infanticide, quoting statistics given by Judge Lindsey. At 7:30 the children rendered a great program to a full and appreciative house. Little Merriell Redd after singing a solo, "I Am Going Home in the Good Old Fashion Way", was presented with a beautiful bouquet. All the exercises were good, and the school were highly pleased. Sunday School convention convened Wednesday.
