COUNCIL BLUFFS NEWS

The representative of the Hollis Art club to the Federated convention at Des Moines gave a very interesting lecture on the work accomplished at the convention. Mrs. Means told of the instructions received from the president. Music was furnished during the convention by band of colored high school students of Des Moines. The president of the federation turned in $475 which her club sent in. More than a thousand dollars was turned in for the benefit of the girl students in Iowa City, the Old Folks Home and The Orphanage. Mrs. Means was elected state chairman of social service work. Next year the federation will meet in Iowa City at which time the mortgage on the Sigma Delta Theta Sorority house will be burned. The Art Club has a tennis court and croquet ground located on Twenty-second street and Fourth avenue. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Nixon, 2230 South Fifteenth street.

On Thursday, June 14th, a pajama party was held at the home of Mrs. Emma Turner. All the ladies were neatly and elegantly attired. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. The Progressive Whist Club met at the home of Miss Ione Brown. After an exciting game of progressive whist the members danced and spent a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Hiro Nichols suffered a very severe cut which almost severed her index finger on her left hand. She was carrying a milk bottle, fell down and the broken glass cut her finger.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Eugene Moore recently purchased a home on Third avenue and Thirtieth street. They plan to move into their new home soon.

Miss Mary Allison is leaving for Rock Springs, Wyo., to spend her summer vacation. Her departure was hastened by the sudden illness of one of her relatives there.

Decision Will Be Popular.
According to a recent court decision a woman need not pay for her photographs if she is not pleased with them, no matter if a dozen of her friends declare that they "look just like her."

Improved Appearance.
When Kenneth saw his brother in rompers for the first time he appeared greatly astonished and finally announced in a highly pleased manner that "the baby don't look like a baby any more—he looks like a child!"
