

MOORLAND IS PAID TRIBUTE BY MANY ADMIRING FRIENDS

Retiring Senior Secretary, Colored Men's Department, Y. M. C. A., Signally Honored at Harpers Ferry.

FOUNDATION IS ESTABLISHED

Fund of $10,000 Being Raised For Training of Secretaries for Association Work.

HARPERS FERRY, W. Va. July 20. This famous spot, the scene of John Brown's last stand for the freedom of the slave, was chosen as the place for the Testimonial Exercises held in honor of Dr. J. E. Moorland, retiring Senior Secretary of the Colored Men's Department, International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, on Tuesday, July 10.

Principal Educational Institutions.

The arrangements were in the hands of a General Committee. The names of the presidents and officers of the most prominent universities for the training of Negro youth in the country appear upon the list including, Howard University, Fisk University, Lincoln University, Wiley University, Wilberforce University, Atlanta University, Morgan College, Morehouse College, New Orleans University, Hampton and Tuskegee Institutes, the Utica Institute, Claflin University, Tennessee State Normal School, Southern University, Lane University, Bishop College, Meharry Medical College, Clark University, The Cheney Institute, Walden University, West Virginia Collegiate Institute, and many others.

All of the addresses paid eloquent tribute to Dr. Moorland and to Mrs. Moorland who was also present.

Testimonials Presented.

Mr Taylor of the New York City Branch Y. M. C. A., in concluding his remarks presented a diamond stick pin to Dr. Moorland and a diamond brooch to Mrs. Moorland.

Mr. Tobias in concluding his remarks presented Dr. Moorland with a black leather bound volume containing expressions of appreciation from many of the most important men of the country who know of Dr. Moorland's work and who have been associated with him in it including Dr. John R. Mott, the General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Julius Rosenwald who has given so beneficently for the Y. M. C. A. buildings for colored men, and dozens of others.

At the close of the exercises, Dr. William T. Nelson of Cincinnati, Ohio, who worked so hard along with Mr. J. A. Green of the Dayton Ohio Y. M. C. A. to make the affair a success informed Dr. Moorland and the assembled delegates that it has decided to establish the Jesse E. Moorland Foundation for the training of Y. M. C. A. Secretaries, and that a good proportion of the proposed foundation, which will amount to $10,000, has already been subscribed.

It was decided that with the assistance of the schools, and colleges, city associations, and interested individuals, both white and colored, the Committee would in all probability reach the goal of $10,000 by November 1, the date of Dr. Moorland's retirement.

Dr. Moorland, under a regulation of the Y. M. C. A. is retiring from active labors as the Senior Secretary after thirty-one years.

WHITES CAN STOP THE NEGRO MIGRATION

State-Wide Conference of Race Leaders Discuss Situation and Place Grievance Before Assembly.

Atlanta, Ga., July 20.—Colored people as a race do not desire to leave Georgia and the south and the remedy for existing conditions is in the hands of the white man, according to a communication addressed to the General Assembly and the people of Georgia, adopted at a state-wide conference of leaders of the race here last Thursday.

The conference was presided over by Bishop J. S. Flipper of the African Methodist Episcopal Church of Atlanta. While declaring his opposition to migration, Bishop Flipper said he did believe the Negro as well as any other race, ought to have the right to scatter to all parts of the Union.

Cites Hardships The communication, which it is proposed to have printed for distribution to members of the legislature and through the state generally, sets forth the evils which the Negroes claim they labor under in this state. These included: Low wages for farm labor; poor housing conditions; bad working conditions on plantations managed by overseers in the absence of the owners; lack of educational facilities; poor accommodations for Negroes when traveling; inequality in the enforcement of the laws; the contract labor law, the repeal of which is asked, and mob violence.

The legislature was urged to pass an anti-lynching law.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS HOLD CONVENTION

The sixth annual session of the New Era Baptist Sunday school and Young People's Union convention opened Tuesday morning at Pilgrim Baptist church with delegates present from all the local churches of the connection and from Council Bluffs, Lincoln and South Sioux City. The features of the opening session were an inspirational address by the Rev. Pau Calhoun, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, Omaha, and the introductory sermon by the Rev. William Franklin, pastor of Pilgrim. Business sessions with reports of various committees interspersed with thoughtful papers, discussions, addresses and musical numbers, have fully occupied the busy sessions, morning, afternoon and night of the convention. The convention will close Saturday morning.

YOUNG MEN ORGANIZE LITERARY CLUB.

Brethren of the Silent Twelve is the name of a literary and social club recently organized by several young men of the city. The club held an interesting meeting last Saturday evening at which time plans were perfected for a reception to be given next Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McHenry, 2859 Ohio street, in honor of Mrs. K. V. Whiteley. Invitations have been sent out for this pleasant social function. Mr. Grant Parker, 2734 Caldwell street is president of the organization.

HAS ANTI-MOB LAW

Jersey City, N. J., July 20.—New Jersey's first statute as a curb for the Ku Klux Klan became effective today. It was introduced by Senator Randolph, the only colored member of the legislature, and recently signed by Governor Siltzer.

Under the new law, a mob may consist of five or more persons, subject to a fine ranging from $5 to $100 and imprisonment from thirty days to one year, when its members can be proven guilty of violence or intended violence. The city or county in which the violence occurs is liable for damages not exceeding $5,000. The law instructs the governor to remove from office any sheriff who permits a mob to take from him a prisoner.

Ezekiel Phinney, 1115 North Twenty-first street, who has been detained at home by illness for several weeks, is steadily improving.

Big Events in the Lives of Little Men

THE FIRST PAY DAY

PAY THE COLLECTOR.

Arthur B. McGraw, a Central High school student, is earning money to help pay his way through school and go to college by collecting for The Monitor. He is being paid a commission for collecting. That's the way he earns his money. He is working hard. Please pay him promptly, whenever you promise to do so. Don't keep him running back for the small amount you owe. And don't put him off by saying, "You'll see the Editor."

GIVE BAZAAR AND JAPANESE DRILL.

The bazaar and Japanese drill given by the Educational Committee of the North End Y. W. C. A. last Thursday night was a very pleasant and successful affair. The Japanese fan drill by eight little misses was a pretty feature. Musical numbers were furnished by Mrs. Shaw-Daniels and Mrs. Fred Divers. Among the ladies assisting were Mesdames Bell, Canty and Charles T. Smith. Mrs. R. S. Hunt, demonstrator for the Paxton & Gallagher's famous Butternut Coffee, served the coffee and iced tea.

He was met by whites from the town of Tuskegee and from Alabama, who voiced their objections. He appointed a committee to work out the situation.

BREAKS WORLD'S RIFLE RECORD

Battalion of Twenty-fifth Infantry Sets New Mark on Douglas, Ariz., Target Range.

Douglas, Ariz., July 20.—A world's record in rifle fire was made by the first battalion of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, stationed at Camp Harry J. Jones in the course of target work completed last Thursday, according to Major Harry J. Castles, commander of the post, who personally supervised the work on the range.

Every man in the three rifle companies of the battalion, numbering about 320, qualified as marksman or better, which, so far as records available at the post here show, has never been equaled before in the history of the United States army.

Corporal Jesse J. Williams, of B Company, made the highest record of the battalion, which is also the highest in the regiment, making a score of 321 out of a possible 350. B Company made the highest average, running up a mark of over 291, its ranks numbering forty-nine expert riflemen, the highest grade attainable, and twenty-nine sharpshooters.

The average for the entire battalion, according to Major Castles, will run between 285 and 290, which is well above the sharpshooter mark of 275.

FLORIDA "WHIPPING BOSS" FOUND GUILTY

LAKE CITY, Fla., July 20.—Thomas W. Higginbotham was convicted of murder in the second degree here Friday afternoon by the jury that heard the evidence against him in connection with the death of Martin, the North Dakota farmer boy, whose murder in a Florida convict camp inspired the crusade that has at last forced the State of Florida to abolish its barbarous convict-leasing system.
