BACHELOR BENEDICT CLUB MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE PUBLIC: We are about to launch a Charity Entertainment for the colored people of Omaha, which will be the best and biggest ever given in this city. To make this a success, we must have your co-operation, as well as that of every person or organization who has the interest of the race at heart.

On Sept. 4th the Bachelor Benedict Club will give for the benefit of the Old Folks' Home an outing at Lake View Park, one of Omaha's most beautiful recreation parks. The Old Folks' Home has just purchased a new building and must raise $3,000 more in the near future. In view of this fact the Bachelor Benedict Club has secured this park for your enjoyment and to aid the Home.

We plan to make this a clean and wholesome entertainment where both old and young will find enjoyment for themselves. We ask the co-operation of your organization. Never before has Omaha been accorded such opportunity for an all day outing. Come out and make this your day. The park is yours. Help us and do your part in helping a cause so worthy!

Very truly,
THE BACHELOR BENEDICT CLUB.

Keep informed on general and local race news by reading The Monitor.

CALLED TO OMAHA BY BROTHER'S DEATH

Mrs. Harry Steward of Wichita, Kans., was called to the city to attend the funeral of her brother, Walter Reeves, who was killed in the recent railroad wreck at Fair Deal, Ill. The funeral was held from the Western Funeral Home last Thursday, Rev. G. S. Hayden officiating. Mrs. Steward is remaining here for an indefinite time with her mother and sisters. She is stopping with Mrs. E. Tillman, 807 North Twenty-fourth street.

STATE BAPTIST MISSIONARY REPORTS WORK PROGRESSING

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Baptist state missionary, returned from Hastings, Fairbury and Beatrice, where he was for nearly two weeks last Monday and left the same night for St. Paul, Minn., to attend the Western Baptist convention, as delegate. He reported that they had splendid sessions and that the women did exceptionally good work. It was the first time that the convention has ever been in that part of the country. The next session will be held in Des Moines, Ia., in connection with the Maple St. Baptist church, of which Rev. S. Bates is pastor. Rev. M. H. Wilkinson preached the missionary sermon for the women and was also elected auditor for the Western convention. While in St. Paul he was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eastman and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Willis, who were members of his church while pastoring in Salt Lake City, Utah. He leaves Wednesday for South Sioux City, Nebr.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Twenty-fifth and R Streets, South Side. O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor.

Sunday services were well attended. The pastor preached at 11 o'clock on "The Separated Life". At the evening service the Rev. I. B. Smith of Lincoln gave an excellent address on his experiences during his recent trip to the Southland. Next Sunday morning the pastor's topic will be "Full Redemption in Christ". Evangelistic service at night. Most of the sick in the congregation are improving, notably J. B. Showers and Mrs. Gray, who are still in the hospital, and Preston Clay. Deaconess Severe is again able to be in her pew, and Mrs. P. M. Harris was a welcome worshipper after several weeks' absence.
