Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, president of the Woman and Girls Training School of Washington, D. C., and six of her young women, appeared in song and lecture at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Friday night. The church was well filled when the young women gave their song recital, which incited much applause, and were called back time and time again. The young women's voices were clear, round and mellow, indicating that they had been well trained. Miss Burroughs was then introduced by Rev. H. W. Botts, and thus, Miss Burroughs spoke at length, and upon her famous subject, "Negro in America," which I have not words to express the noble and convincing message she gave to us. Miss Burroughs has a distinctive, firm and convincing voice, which penetrated the minds of her hearers, causing them to love her, for her noble words of advice and would say, if put in practice, would win new laurels for the Negro. Lincoln considers Miss Minnie H. Burroughs the best ever.

Miss Burroughs and her six young women appeared at Mt. Zion Baptist church again Sunday afternoon and an overwhelming crowd was in attendance. Her message being still more convincing, many having seen and heard her for the first time. Miss Minnie H. Burroughs filled an engagement with the lecture bureau of the Epworth Assembly here Friday afternoon, August 10, speaking before an extremely large audience of white people, who by their applause and expressions, considered her the most forcible speaker of color that the world knows. The song recital by the young women was so immensely enjoyed by the crowd, that they never finished, but just stopped.

Miss Burroughs went to Omaha Monday and appeared at Dr. W. F. Ball's church Monday night. Miss Burroughs is en route to the National Baptist Convention at Los Angeles, California, in September. R. H. Young, G. M. of Masonic Grand Lodge of Nebraska, went to Omaha Sunday. The M. W. G. Lodge sets Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Todd of Lincoln motored to Brunswick, Mo., visiting Mr. Mackay's and Mrs. Todd's mother and brother, Mrs. Cora Griggs and Mr. Jno. Mackay. They report a delightful trip. Please remit for your paper!

MASONIC GRAND LODGE HOLDING ANNUAL SESSION

The Jurisdiction Well Represented — Reports Show Order in Good Condition and Growing.

GRANDMASTER YOUNG PRESENTS

The fifth annual communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of Nebraska and its jurisdiction is in session here this week with a good attendance of delegates and visitors. The session opened Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Grandmaster Young of Lincoln, Nebraska, presiding. Delegates from the following lodges answered the roll call: Rough Ashler No. 1, Omaha; Excelsior No. 2, Omaha; Lebanon No. 3, Lincoln; Rescue No. 4, Omaha; Marvin No. 5, Hastings; True American No. 6, Grand Island; Alliance No. 7, Alliance; Omaha No. 9, Omaha; Hiram No. 10, Omaha, and St. John's No. 11, South Side.

The morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to routine business which was rapidly dispatched. Reports of the officers showed the order to be in a prosperous condition and rapidly growing in the jurisdiction. The Grandmaster's address dealt with many practical matters and made several excellent recommendations.

Wednesday night an open session was held at Cleve M. E. Church at which an address of welcome to the city was made by Commissioner Joseph Koutsky, representing Mayor Dahman, who is out of the city; an excellent and scholarly response by I. B. Smith of Lincoln; on the part of the churches by the Rev. E. L. Hollis, pastor of Cleve, and a brief response by Walter L. Seals. Nate Hunter, P. G. M., presided and M. L. Wilson introduced Commissioner Koutsky.

Thursday night a musical program was given by local talent at the hall followed by a smoker. The election of officers and concluding session will be held Friday.

A Golden Feather. The feathers of the "golden pheasant" are a source of profit, being used in the manufacture of artificial flies for salmon fishing. These birds, natives of China, are the hardest of the pheasant tribe.

Guilt Its Own Punishment. Nothing is more common than for great thieves to ride in triumph when small ones are punished. But let wickedness escape as it may at the law, it never fails of doing itself justice; for every guilty person is his own hangman.—Seneca.

Ring Changes on Death. The death was announced the other day of a gentleman who, the son of James Death, had changed his name to D'Aeth. That is an unusual variation of a name which one would not willingly choose, though the old family of the D'Aeths of Knowlton Court, Kent, claim that the surname is derived from Aeth, in Flanders. The directory reveals many efforts to disguise the melancholy association, including Deathe, Dearth, De Ath and De'ath.

Just a Suggestion. Speaking of books printed in America, it is much better to have that legend shown on the reverse of the title page than at the end of the volume where it so often makes an anticlimax. A novel's last page will sometimes read like this: "She pressed her lips to his. Printed in the United States of America."—William Lyon Phelps, in Scribner's Magazine.

Women Compared With Clocks. Women are like clocks. Some of them are fairly reliable with but little attention, while others need almost constant care, and it is not always the high-priced, jeweled ones that are most dependable. They may have pretty hands, pretty faces and pretty movements, but they are liable to get out of order, and when they do they are all very hard to regulate.—Oregon Lemon Punch.

Unstable Equilibrium. A body is in unstable equilibrium when after a slight tipping, it tends to move farther from its original position. A cone balanced on its point or an egg on its end is in unstable equilibrium.
