MIDNITE SHOW AT GAYETY

Jimmie Cooper's Big Prismatic Boom Will Stand Omaha on Tip-Toe.

Wide variety of entertainment with the amusement making cast in two colors is the schedule for next week's show at the popular Gayety theatre starting Saturday matinee, Sept. 15. This attraction is "Jimmie Cooper's Revue" with irrepressible Jimmie as chief entertainer of the big aggregation of 70 people. Cooper is a whole show in himself, for few, if any men on the stage are as full of pep as this indomitable worker. He is here, there and everywhere every moment that the curtain is up, urging the members of his company from top notch principal to the least important chorus girl on to greater effort.

The Cooper revue is divided into two parts, the first being given over to white actors exclusively, and the second to colored ones. After the intermission the blacks give their own show which is said to be one of the liveliest and most tuneful combinations of jazz, harmony and "blues" singing seen and heard in many a day.

Heading the white aggregation of entertainers in support of Mr. Cooper are Grace Goodale, as prima donna; Dolly Benfield as soubrette; Alice Belaire as ingenue; Joe Barrett as juvenile and the Blossom Sisters in a very pleasing sister act.

In the colored half of the company are Julian Arthur's Ten Red Hot Syncopsters; Bessie DeSoto, a colored dancing marvel from Plantation Days; Snow Fisher, famous strutter formerly with "Shuffle Along"; Brownie, one of the most talented strutters from "Liza" and the Four "Dancing Fools."

Sunday's matinee will start at 3:00. There will be an extra midnight show starting at 11:30 Thursday night, half an hour after the termination of the regular 8:30 performance.
