LINCOLN NEWS AND COMMENT

Mrs. J. H. Jenkins left for her home in St. Louis, Mo., last Saturday, going by way of Omaha, and was accompanied as far as Omaha by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robt. M. Johnson, who visited Mr. Robt. H. Johnson, Jr., and his wife.

Rev. A. L. Weatherly, a white minister, formerly of this city as pastor of the Universal church, lectured to a fair crowd of white and colored in Auditorium of McKinley School last Thursday night under auspices of the N. A. A. C. P. Mr. Weatherly is a man of exceptional qualities and is favorable to our group in so many ways that we feel sorry that his charge is in a foreign field which prevents him to work in our midst. Mr. Weatherly talked along the lines of aptness of the mind of man, saying that God had given man a human mind, no doubt equal in every way, but man was urged to cultivate it, therefore causing his brain cells to fill up that he may think and take in knowledge which has caused the world to be so wise today, and he further stated that this does not apply to white man only but to the colored man as well. His lecture was well rounded out and all hearers enjoyed it.

Mrs. Gertrude, local president of N. A. A. C. P., is especially commended in getting as splendid lecturers as Rev. Mr. Weatherly to present to the people. It suffices to say that the N. A. A. C. P. will take on new life in this community.

Mrs. W. L. Todd attended the executive board of the New Era Baptist Association at Omaha last Tuesday.

Mrs. Maude Gates was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday night and was rushed to the St. Elizabeth's hospital where a surgical operation was performed on her Wednesday morning for some abdominal ailment. According to last reports the patient is doing fairly well.

Earl I. McWilliams left last week for Montreal, Canada, where he expects to reside for a while. His wife, who is visiting in Washington, D. C., will join him there.

Mrs. F. Richards, traveling missionary, visited her sister here this week. She worshipped at Mt. Zion Sunday night and told of her travels since leaving here four years ago. She left for Denver Monday.

The Busy Bees had quite a successful social and supper at the church last Tuesday night.

Messrs. R. W. Walker and Jas. R. Shelby have moved their lunch car from South Eleventh to Twenty-first and O streets, the lot where the car stood so long was sold to be built on.

Services at the A. M. E. church were conducted by the pastor last Sunday, who preached during the day. Communion was served at morning worship. The Sunday school and A. C. E. society were well attended.

Rev. G. W. Carter of Newman M. E. church conducted his services as usual Sunday. His folks attended in fair numbers.

Covenant and praise meeting was featured at Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday morning. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. enjoyed a program Sunday night. At 8 p. m. Rev. H. W. Botts preached a most excellent sermon; after which a large crowd of members partook of communion.—Big financial rally next Sunday.

Rev. G. W. Carter of the Newman Methodist church will preach for Rev. H. W. Botts at 3 p. m. next Sunday. All pastors and churches are invited.

Andrew Nettles, aged 83 years, died at his home, First and E streets, Monday at 10 a. m. from a stroke of paralysis brought on seemingly from effects of recent injuries. He leaves to mourn his loss three sons, Bud of Billings, Mont.; William of Colton, Cal., and James of Lincoln; one daughter, Lovey Perry of Lincoln. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

THE COLORED MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE OF OMAHA

President—Rev. E. L. Hollis.
Vice-President—Rev. T. A. Taggart.

Secretary—Rev. J. D. Crum.
Compiling Secretary—Rev. O. J. Burkhardt.

Treasurer—Rev. F. Divers.
10:30 a. m. each Tuesday was set as the hour for meeting—12:00 noon of closing.

Rev. J. H. Bruce will appear on the program next meeting.
J. D. CRUM, Reporter.

Conscience the Great Need.
One of the saddest sights in life is the growing disregard of conscience; the smothering of high ambition by petty indulgences, the gradual decay of fine ideals, the dwarfing of character by the overdevelopment of material things.
