Don't forget the Novelties Halloween Ball Wednesday night, October 31, at beautiful Dreamland hall. Adams' orchestra. Two prizes given. One to the most comically dressed man, and one to the most comically dressed woman. George Fitzpatrick, Mgr.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to heartily thank Mr. J. H. Broomfield, W. H. Robinson and the many friends and neighbors for their kindly sympathy, cheering words and beautiful floral offerings, during my short stay in Omaha, while I was arranging the funeral of my brother, Fred Jackson, who died October 4. May I especially thank Iroquois Lodge No. 92, I. B. P. O. E. of W. for their broad fraternal spirit and their most willing assistance.

MISS GERTRUDE JACKSON, Sister, Kansas City, Kans.

VISITS HOME OF BRIDAL DAYS

Mrs. E. H. McDonald, wife of the pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist church, left Saturday for Detroit, Mich., the scene of her bridal days and one of Dr. McDonald's first pastorates. En route she spent Sunday with friends in Chicago. While in Detroit she will be the guest of Mrs. Ida Postels. The surviving members of the Willing Workers of which Mrs. McDonald was an active member have planned a reunion and a reception for her Thursday night. Before her return Mrs. McDonald will visit her sister, Mrs. Elmore Washington, and her niece and nephew at Toronto, Canada.

Paris, Oct. 26.—A band of 300 native riflemen attacked a platoon of sixty French camel troops fifty miles north of Timbuctoo, annihilating the whole detachment after a seven-hour battle, said a dispatch from Dakar recently.
