MASQUERADE PARTY

The High School Girls' Club gave their first party Monday night. It was a Halloween party and talk about fun! Oh, boy! Yes, the boys were there too. In fact there were about seventy of the jolliest group of youths and maidens, with the maidens slightly outnumbering the youths, as one could find anywhere. It was a masquerade affair and the costumes were various from sober monks to dancing girls, French, Italian, Turkish, Egyptian, African and nondescript. The centre was attractively decorated in Halloween colors. Johnson's orchestra, generously volunteered their services. There were marches and games galore. The judges had difficulty in selecting the most unique costume and character; but finally awarded the prize to Miss Nonance Gibson, who impersonated a Mexican dancing girl. John Pegg who impersonated a Capuchin Monk was a close second. Prizes in the musical mat contest went to Miss Constance Singleton and Arthur McCaw. Doughnuts, cider, apples and home-made candy were the refreshments.

"QUEENS OF PARIS" WILL SPARKLE AT GAYETY

Gayety's Envyable Reputation for Presentation of Worth While Musical Shows Sustained

Jacobs & Jermon will present "Queens of Paris" next week starting Saturday matinee, November 3rd, at the popular Gayety theatre as one of their new Columbia "Wheel" offerings of musical burlesque. John G. Jermon has personally staged a show that promises to best fulfill the requirements of family entertainment and has peopled its 12 scenes with talented comedians, pretty principal girls and a score of lively choristers who know how to sing and can really dance. I. B. Hamp, the featured comedian, wrote the burlesque book and Ruby Cowan has supplied some jingly music to beguile the ear while the agile ensemble sets a lively dancing pace.

The K. of P. uniform Drill team and the Ladies Drill team also P. J. Waddles' wonderful Boys' Band. You should have heard this band play the marches and overtures, they were certainly good. P. J. Waddles is quite successful in training young people.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

There were good congregations present throughout the day, beginning with the Sunday school which shows steady growth. The Senior choir gave a program at 8 p. m., which was much enjoyed. Other participants in the program, who gave addresses, papers and readings were Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. M. Carter, Mrs. L. Busch, Harrold Bartlette, Mrs. Moffat and Rev. P. M. Harris. Next Sunday will be Rally Day. The pastor will officiate. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Goode now of Sioux City, Ia., were worshippers here on Sunday. Among the sick of the congregation are Elizabeth Clark, Laura Jefferson, Joseph Price and H. S. Norman.

THE ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

26th and Seward Streets
Russel Taylor, Pastor

Yes, we have no standing according to the testimony of the Grand Ornithorynchus, or some other kind of cuss of the K. K. K., but so long as we adhere to the standard laid down by Moses and the prophets, so long as we build on the foundation of the prophets and the apostles with Jesus Christ as the chief cornerstone, all the Grand Tohrinkuses in the universe cannot disqualify us.

Another member was added to our number Sunday morning, and there are still more to follow. If some of the members of the family who are systematically absenting themselves from the family circle would drop in occasionally, and should each one just happen to choose or hit upon the same occasion, they would really be surprised how large the family actually is. TRY IT.

Sunday morning the pastor's theme will be, "Wells, or Broken Cisterns, Which?" Snuday evening, "A Nation of Profaners," or "What are You Doing with the Third Commandment?"

Insuring the Forests.

The first forest insurance was written in Germany in 1870, and it has made gains in Europe commensurate with the development of forest cultivation and protection.

Nebraska Civil Rights Bill
Chapter Thirteen of the Revised Statutes of Nebraska, Civil Rights. Enacted in 1893.

Sec. 1. Civil rights of persons. All persons within this state shall be entitled to a full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of inns, restaurants, public conveyances, barber shops, theatres and other places of amusement; subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to every person.

Sec. 2. Penalty for Violation of Preceding Section. Any person who shall violate the foregoing section by denying to any person, except for reasons of law applicable to all persons, the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges enumerated in the foregoing section, or by aiding or inciting such denials, shall for each offense be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, and pay the costs of the prosecution.

"The original act was held valid as to citizens; barber shops can not discriminate against persons on account of color. Messenger vs State, 25 Nebr. page 677. N. W. 638."

"A restaurant keeper who refuses to serve a colored person with refreshments in a certain part of his restaurant, for no other reason than that he is colored, is civilly liable, though he offers to serve him by setting a table in amore private part of the house. Ferguson vs Gies, 82 Mich. 358; N. W. 718."
