

YOUTHFUL FOLLIES

Gayety's Christmas Tree Is Overburdened With Clean Fun and Holiday Merriment.

There are said to be so many attractive features in "Youthful Follies" coming to the popular Gayety theatre all week, starting Saturday matinee, that space is not available to describe them all.

But to revert to "Youthful Follies". It is a bit larger than the ordinary show, going on the revue type. In ten magnificent scenes, it offers rare novelty in its stage settings.

A really splendid cast is promised. It is headed by Eddie Cole, a comedian of unusual and amusing qualifications.

Harry Morris, a Hebrew comedian, offers a brand new delineation of this popular type of comic; Julia Gifford, besides contributing artistically as prima donna does a high class singing specialty.

"Youthful Follies" boasts of a chorus that is second to none. It has every attribute that goes toward making a pleasing ensemble—youth, beauty, ability and vivacity.

FAIL TO RETURN SOUTH AS CLAIMED BY EDITORS; CANCEL SPECIAL TRAIN

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 21.—Reports of intimidation of 300 Negro families claimed to be prepared to return south on a special Illinois Central train proved to be a flivver.

Rumors of threats of violence said to have been made by whites against the Negroes were widely circulated a few days ago.

According to officials of the Illinois Central railroad only thirty colored families returned south. Reports were circulated that northern whites were going among the Negroes telling them that as soon as they got on the train the doors of the coaches would be locked and not opened until the train reached its destination.

It seemed that the southern and the northern whites made a strong play on the ignorance and fears of many of the Negroes.

MRS. MARY CHURCH TERRELL SEEKS $20,000 DAMAGES

Washington, Dec. 21.—Mrs. Mary Church Terrell, wife of Judge Robert H. Terrell, of the District Municipal Court, has entered suit in the Supreme Court against the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company for $20,000 damages for alleged personal injuries by her sustained on account of the defendant's negligence.

Mrs. Terrell alleges that on July 29, 1923, while riding in her automobile, she was injured severely in a collision of her car and one owned by the defendant.

Messrs. Newmeyer and King, well known attorneys of Washington, appear for Mrs. Terrell.

RACIAL ANIMOSITY SAID TO SUBSIDE AS NEGRO IS CONVICTED

Waycross, Ga., Dec. 21.—Racial animosity, which has run high over the alleged attack by Andrew Moody on an aged couple near here a few weeks ago, when a jury deliberating on the case brought in a verdict of "guilty for assault with intent to kill."

SHAKESPEARE SCRIPT IS OLD

"Find" in British Museum Has Been Known Since 1871, E. H. Sothern Says.

Announcement of the discovery of a manuscript in Shakespeare's handwriting among some old papers in the British museum comes about half a century late, according to E. H. Sothern.

Mr. Sothern writes to the New York World that an obscure student of Shakespeare blundered upon the manuscript in 1871 and in a book published in 1916 Sir Edward Maunde Thompson established the chirography as that of Shakespeare.

But Mr. Sothern and Julia Marlowe, browsing through the British museum in 1921, unaware any such manuscript existed, came upon it.

"Benjamin de Casseres published in the Theater magazine of February, 1922, an interview with me dealing with the discovery of Shakespeare's handwriting," writes Mr. Sothern.

AMERICANS ARE NEW PEOPLE

Views of Psychologists Cited to Prove That They Differ From the Europeans.

Do we really dare to maintain that this country isn't any different from Europe? asks James Oppenheim in the New Republic.

Will any one maintain that a hundred million people, severed from Europe by an ocean, and built up out of a pioneer environment, which furnished a unique experience for white men, is not even more different from Europe than one European nation from another?

I watched two European psychologists, one of them great, the other excellent, react to America. They knew Europeans. They had psycho-analyzed many.

Worse Than Losing the Ring. The bridegroom and the best man were at the altar awaiting the bride. The former became very white and seemed about to faint.

PROFESSIONAL TENDENCIES

Mrs. Smilax—Henry, I really believe Freddy is going to be a doctor when he grows up. I heard him tell Mary that she must be careful of her health, and that pie was considered lurtful.

Vanishing Hitching Post. A man got out of a buggy in front of a store in Wooster, O., recently, and, after looking in vain for a hitching post, took a long rope out of the buggy.

Time's Changes. The hired man was tinkering around the farmyard. The patent churn man gave him a cheap cigar and asked him how things were coming along.
