Dinner
Bargain Dinner, Thursday, January 4, from 4 to 9 p. m. Only 39 cents. Come and enjoy a good meal.

Rendering Service
Service has been the keynote of this happy season and right royally have the girls of the North Side Branch entered into it. The girls of the grade schools made gifts for the poor children and helped fill the baskets which were distributed. The High School Girls also made gifts which gladdened many. On Sunday afternoon they went to the Old Folks Home and presented a delightful program of Christmas carols and recitations which these aged shut ins thoroughly enjoyed. The girls were happy in bringing happiness to others.

Social Hour
Sunday afternoon from 4 to 5 will be the regular monthly get-together service at the Centre. The Girl Reserves will have charge of the program. They will present a delightful Christmas play entitled "The Christmas Guest". The usual social hour will be held from 5 to 6. Come! You are welcome!

CARD OF THANKS

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 24, 1923.
I desire to express my heartfelt thanks to my many friends for their sympathy and kindness to me during the illness of my husband who departed this life December 15. Especially do I thank Princess Oziel Chapter No. 69, O. E. S.

MRS. MABEL HARDISON.

The Mesdames Jasper E. Brown and Austin W. Serrant are spending the holidays with relatives in Chicago.

Ethel Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Steele of Minneapolis, Minn., was baptized at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon Sunday morning.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH

The services Christmas Day were well attended. They began with the midnight Mass or celebration of the Holy Communion at midnight Christmas Eve. The church was beautifully decorated and the brilliantly lit altar presented an impressive sight. The music was simple. There was a low celebration at 8 a. m., and matins and choral eucharist with brief sermon at 11. The children's festival and tree was held in the Guild room Thursday night.

PEAT, THE RESTAURANT KING

Peat, the Restaurant King, did something that was never done before in Omaha by his race. He gave his help and many friends a free Xmas dinner. Everything was up to date. The City Lunch hasn't been closed before in nearly three years night or day. It was hard to get a key to open the door at 10 p. m. that night. City Lunch and Peat's Lunch Room.—Adv.
