NOTES

The musical vesper service and social hour given last Sunday afternoon was a delightful and well-attended affair. All persons taking part in the program did themselves credit. Several congregations of the city were represented by the participants.

"BARGAIN DINNER" every Thursday from 6 to 9 p. m. Dine with us. You'll enjoy it.

ISAAC KONECKY FILES FOR CITY COMMISSIONER

Isaac Konecky, formerly editor of the Jewish Bulletin and now serving as deputy sheriff, has filed for city commissioner, subject to the April primaries. Mr. Konecky is a live wire and does whatever he does wholeheartedly. He will make a good commissioner. He is well and favorably known to our people upon whom he can confidently rely for enthusiastic support.

KLAVER FOR COUNTY ASSESSOR CLUB FORMED

Tuesday night a Colored Klaver for County Assessor Club was organized to boost the candidacy of S. E. Klaver, for four years chief deputy in the County Assessor's office. The following officers were elected: Dan Desdunes, president; Isaac Bailey, vice-president, and John A. Smith, secretary. This is the first time that Dan Desdunes, the well-known and popular bandmaster, has ever taken any active part in politics. Feeling, however, that Mr. Klaver's qualifications are such as to fit him for the position which he seeks Mr. Desdunes consented to head the Klaver for County Assessor Club.

SEVEN MORE BIG DAYS

The bazaar has had a successful week of inspiration and education program from which much benefit has been derived. It will continue next week closing March 7, at which time a banquet will be given with the Business and Professional Men, the guests of honor. Attorney John Adams will be toastmaster. ANNUAL BAZAAR, PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH, Twenty-fifth and Hamilton streets.—Adv.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

O. J. Burekhardt, Pastor.

The Rev. A. W. Jones preached at the morning service and the Rev. A. Jacobs of Lincoln at night. Both speakers gave helpful messages. Quarterly meeting will be held March 9, for which arrangements are now being made. Mr. Jones is still in the hospital. Mesdames Clay and Howell are able to be around.

MRS. GOODLETT DIES AT UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Mrs. Minnie Goodlett died last Tuesday afternoon at the University hospital. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Pilgrim Baptist church of which she was an active and faithful member. Rev. J. D. Crum officiated. The remains were shipped to Beatrice, Ala., for burial. She is survived by her husband, Taylor Goodlett, two small children and several other relatives.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. F. Botts, Pastor.

The Community singing has created great interest in the church and has proven beneficial to the services under the leadership of Prof. Hill. The B. Sharp Circle, an organization of young people, will present Madame Sayde Cochran Chadwick in a song recital March 7.

ADAM McMULLEN FOR GOVERNOR

Be sure to register, so you can vote at the primaries, April 8, for Adam McMullen, of Beatrice, Neb., republican candidate for the nomination for governor.

JUST HAD TO GET INTO THAT TEA POT SOMEWAY

Washington, D. C., Feb. 29.—Multi-millionaire oil dealer Doheny testified before the Senate Committee that he donated $25,000 during the campaign of 1920 to refute statements in newspaper advertisements that the late President Harding was of Negro blood.

Omaha's population, as shown by the Federal census of 1920, was 191,601. The Federal estimate July 1, 1923, was 204,382. The latest school census taken in Omaha gives an estimate of 209,000. The colored population is above 13,000.

WANTED—Two young or middle aged ladies of pleasing personality. If you are earning less than $30 per week and want a real position and desire to better your condition see Mr. J. E. Smith by appointment at the North Side Bazaar, 2114 No. 24th St.

Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have
Much common sense or tact,
Yet every time she lays an egg
She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot
Of intellect to show,
But none the less most roosters have
Enough good sense to crow.

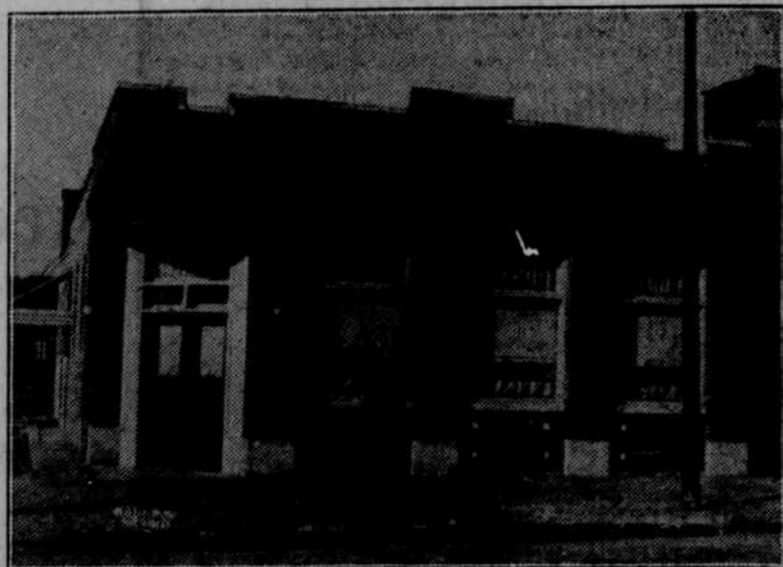

The mule, the most despised of beasts,
Has a persistent way
Of letting folks know he's around
By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz,
Bulls bellow and cows moo,
The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack,
The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks,
Pigs squeal and robins sing
And even serpents know enough
To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece
That nature could devise,
Will often stop and hesitate
Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise
And want our people's trade
Use THE MONITOR to advertise
And thus their fortune's made.

Our beautiful, modern funeral home provides every convenience and our experience qualifies us to render the service demanded when loved ones are called by death.

Why We Recommend

Consider this picture. It shows a house of the older type it is true, but it can't show you the interior which consists of five nice rooms with a store room upstairs. Every room well lighted, clean and well kept and modern except the furnace. The lot is unusually large being 60x124. There is a garage. What more could you ask for $2600 terms asked $300 down, $25 a month. If you can't quite handle the first payment come in or phone us anyhow. Office is open until 9 p. m.
