"HAPPY DAYS" AT GAYETY

Princess Kee-Wa-Nu, Noted Australian Dancer, is a Daring Feature

In Hurtig and Seamon's Columbia Burlesque offering "Happy Days" which comes to the popular Gayety theatre Saturday as next week's attraction, theatre goers are assured an entertainment that should meet with their unqualified approval. This is a striking example of modern burlesque—the variety that has taken such a hold upon the public and which has developed Columbia Burlesque into an immensely popular amusement idea.

Two performances daily will be in vogue during the week that "Happy Days" is here. This will include night performances and daily matinees which are designed to allow ladies who come unattended an opportunity of enjoying the pleasure of the theatre.

Will H. Ward, an old favorite with burlesque patrons, and "Rage" Murphy, tramp specialist are leaders of the fun-making delegates. The featured vaudeville specialty introduces the Four Dancing Demons, a quartette of colored steppers who are said to be the fastest working bunch of foot-workers ever gathered together in one group.

Another feature is Kee-Wa-Nu, Australasian impressionistic rhythmic dancer whose interpretations though thrilling and daring, are at the same time artistic and beautiful.

An operetta with a cast entirely of Lincoln young people was given in McKinley school last Friday night for the first time when "Miss Cherry Blossom" by May Hewes Dodge and John Welson Dodge was presented to a well filled house, which was under auspices of the National Association. Young people attending Lincoln High and State University filled the chorus and took other roles, and were directed by Miss Irene Morgan and Miss Marie Barner. It is said the production was fine, not only in its settings, but in the manner each person lent themselves to the parts. Their voices were rich and harmonious, and the interpretation of humor in the comedy was captivating. The cast: Cherry Blossom, Agnes Thomas; Kokemo, Viola Johnson; Jack Smith, Everet Wilford; Harry Jones, Shumpert Logan; H. Worthington, Charles Mitchell; James Young, Milton Johnson; Jessica Vanderpool, Muriel Batten; Logo-Dewey Jackson; Geisha girls, Maxine Holms, Valeril Crews, Mertha James, Thelma Hammond, Veva Jones, Corinne Ferguson; American girls and boys, Ray Holcomb, Harold Adams, John Adams, Frederick Holcomb, Charles Mitchell, Erma Tuggle, Francis Mitchell, Mary Mitchell, Minnie Hill, Ruth Girdley.

Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have
Much common sense or tact,
Yet every time she lays an egg
She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot
Of intellect to show,
But none the less most roosters have
Enough good sense to crow.

The mule, the most despised of beasts,
Has a persistent way
Of letting folks know he's around
By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz,
Bulls bellow and cows moo,
The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack,
The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks,
Pigs squeal and robins sing
And even serpents know enough
To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece
That nature could devise,
Will often stop and hesitate
Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise
And want our people's trade
Use THE MONITOR to advertise
And thus their fortune's made.
