HELP SAVE GERMANY'S STARVING CHILDREN

A campaign has been launched in Omaha and in the State of Nebraska to raise funds for the starving children of Germany.

One of the strongest committees that ever handled a campaign in Omaha is directing the work of raising the money. Mr. Frank B. Johnson of the Omaha Printing Company is chairman, and Mr. Carl R. Gray president of the Union Pacific System, is vice chairman. The following is the committee:

W. W. Head, Ford E. Hovey, C. T. Kountze, James C. Dahlman, F. W. Judson, T. C. Byrne, Frank Keogh, Randall K. Brown, N. P. Uptide, A. J. Eggers, O. H. Barmettler, M. C. Peters, George Brandeis, Henry Doorly, Joseph Polcar, Ballard Dunn, F. A. Brogan, Henry Monsky, Dr. Frank Smith, Carl R. Gray, E. Buckingham, W. A. Fraser, Frank B. Johnson, E. F. Waterbury and Harry A. Wolf.

The campaign to be conducted here is a part of a national program to save the more than seven million German children from suffering and death because they are not able to get proper food and nourishment.

According to Chairman Johnson children are dying in the streets and homes of Germany because of lack of food.

"Thousands of children will die and many thousands of them will suffer a life worse than death unless quick aid is given them," said Mr. Johnson.

"The hospitals and public institutions are now filled with under-nourished children. We cannot do anything else but hear their cries and pleas for aid. These children had nothing to do with bringing on these conditions. They are its victims."

Carl R. Gray is one of the most enthusiastic workers in the campaign. "I am interested because America never waged a war against children," said Mr. Gray. "We cannot turn a deaf ear to the cry of suffering humanity. We must forget the past and help. By aiding these children we will show to the world our genuineness for world-wide good will."

Mr. Gray said that during wartime the government fed war prisoners and now that children of a former enemy country are dying for food, the people of America should come to their aid and save them from death.

Solicitation by the executive committee will be limited to a selective list of business men. Donations may be made by mailing checks to Fred W. Thomas, First National Bank, who is treasurer of the campaign.

National leaders of thought are taking part in this country-wide campaign. The Chicago campaign was held under the direction of General Chas. G. Dawes, and the National Chairman is General Henry T. Allen who directed the American Army of Occupation in Germany.

ADVICE TO THE MUNSON LINE Jewish Citizens Are In Business, You Know.

This newspaper learns that the Munson Steamship Line gladly accepts Jews on board its ship bound for Nassau, but declines to give them rooms in the Nassau Hotel after they get there. Inasmuch as there is no other desirable hotel on the island that situation is not agreeable to those that suffer this stupid un-American discrimination.

It would be interesting to know why the Munson Line, a public corporation, which owns the hotel, considers Jewish citizens desirable on board of its boats and acceptable in the dining room of the hotel, but refuses to RENT ROOMS to them.

Possibly, the facts being here made known, other Jewish citizens may take interest in the matter.

The Munson Line says to Jews "Our hotel is a little too good for you."

A good many Jews, whose business is very extensive and valuable, might say to the Munson Line, "Our freight is too good for you."

Something of that kind might bring the Munson Line gentlemen to their senses and make them take a little more seriously the Constitution of the United States and ordinary American decency, which oppose discrimination on religious grounds.—Chicago Evening American.

The above editorial presents an interesting study as intimating a boycott or withdrawal of patronage as an effective weapon against discrimination. Think it over.—Editor.

LOYALTY IS MOST IMPORTANT WORD

Wins First Place in Lists of Six Supplied by Savants.

Princeton.—That "loyalty" is the most important word in the English language today is the consensus of a representative group of Princeton professors, a noted Egyptologist and the university proctor here. The question was raised in a discussion in a preceptorial meeting, and to settle the discussion Prof. Christian Gauss, director of public relations, recently made inquiry among eight professors, Proctor Bovie and Dr. David Paton, the Egyptologist.

President Hibben when asked for a list of six most important words in the language placed "loyalty" second only to "duty." Dean West of the Graduate college, foremost American educator, and Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft, director of the department of physical education, both ranked "loyalty" first, an intellectual and a physical authority thus being at one in this choice. Three other men placed "loyalty" either first or second in their six word lists.—Dr. J. Duncan Spaeth, professor of English literature and rowing coach; David Paton, Egyptologist, and Proctor Henry Bovie.

Courage Next to Loyalty. "Courage" followed "loyalty" with four selections. Here again Dean West and Doctor Raycroft were at one in their choice. Prof. Duane Reed Stuart of the classics department also chose this word as did Dr. Stewart Paton, brother of the Egyptologist and noted neurobiologist. Doctor Paton created quite a stir recently when he predicted that intercollegiate football must some day be abolished because of its commercialism, but he attributed great virtue to the game as a means of attaining sportsmanship and courage.

Although his chief interest is in education, Dean West placed "knowledge" after "loyalty" and "magnanimity." Dr. Henry van Dyke, formerly professor of English literature at Princeton, chose common every day words such as "yes" and "no," "the" and "a." David Paton concluded his list with "a catholic sense of humor" without which he said any man is certain to take himself too seriously. The complete word lists chosen follow:

Complete Lists of Words. President Hibben, duty, loyalty, honor, self-control, service, sacrifice.

Dean West, loyalty, magnanimity, knowledge, energy, courage, humor.

Dr. van Dyke, a, the, is, no, yes, do. Prof. Edwin G. Conklin, head of the department of biology, sincerity, sanity, humanity, love, truth, beauty.

Doctor Raycroft, loyalty, courage, persistence, self-respect, sportsmanship, tolerance.

Professor Stuart, sensitiveness, restraint, sportsmanship, courage, self-knowledge, altruism.

Doctor Spaeth, liberty, loyalty, sympathy, justice, intelligence, character.

Dr. David Paton, loyalty (for friendship's sake), charity (for charity's sake), work (for work's sake), sport (for sport's sake), a catholic sense of humor.

Dr. Stewart Paton, truth, courage, perseverance, health, family, friends.

Proctor Bovie, religion, loyalty, honesty, fairness, work, recreation.

Many Kinds of Animals Swept Up From Streets

New York.—If all the things the sanitary bureau of the department of health gathered from the streets of New York city in 1922, according to belated reports for that year, were in good order and assembled in one place, they would be the nucleus for a menagerie. The report shows that the bureau dragged up the bodies of one lion, one bear, one alligator, two camels, three elephants, one deer, 5,807 horses, 908 cattle, 16 ponies, 11 colts, 8 mules, 4 donkeys, 254,903 cats, 4,538 dogs, 741 calves, 375 sheep, 845 goats, 45 hogs and 3 seals.

The report does not say where the seals, the alligator, the camels, the elephants, the lion and the bear came from. In fact the report has it that the bureau is as surprised as anybody.

Girl Dresses Doll in Lost Bonds Worth $40,000

Chicago.—Eileen Berry, eight years old, playing along the street near her home, discovered in the snow an envelope containing several papers with gold edges.

"What have you there, Eileen?" asked her father, the next evening, as he noticed her marking out plans on the papers.

"Just some pretty paper to make dresses for my dollies," she said as she held up one of the papers.

Mr. Berry investigated and was struck speechless. The "pretty papers" were gold bonds, worth $40,000, all negotiable, with $900 interest coupons attached. Inquiry at the bank disclosed they had been lost by A. G. Becker, head of an investment company bearing his name, and he gave Eileen $100 wherewith to buy less expensive material for her doll dresses.

Dog Bites Cost $70,000

Jersey City, N. J.—It cost Hudson county $70,000 to treat 900 persons who were bitten by dogs there last year, according to statements by Dr. John Von Der Leith, a veterinary surgeon, before the annual convention of the Veterinary Medical Association of New Jersey in Jersey City recently. Each person bitten had to undergo the Pasteur treatment, which costs the county $75.

U. S. TO SELL RUGS ONCE OWNED BY CZAR

Valued at $47,000 to Be Auctioned

New York.—Persian rugs, valued at $47,000, will be sold at auction by the bureau of seizures of the customs department to cover unpaid duties and salvage charges. One story is that they were used as hangings in the palace of the late Czar Nicholas, although there is considerable mystery concerning where they came from and to whom they were consigned.

One rug considered more valuable than the others is 54 by 79 inches and is said to be a perfect specimen of the weaver's art. Intertwoven in the strands of luxuriant color is a remarkable likeness of the czar, seated on his throne, wearing his saber and full regalia as emperor of all the Russias. The belief that the rugs were coverings is strengthened by this fact, since it is pointed out that no royal Russian would have walked on a likeness of the czar.

The rugs are in the usual Persian colors, mulberry, red and blue, and are so fine they can be crumpled up almost as though they were silk. The rug bearing the woven image of the czar was appraised at $20,000 by the customs officials. The only identifying mark found on any of the rugs is on this one. In the corner under the czar's left boot, are the initials W. A. R. and "Bagdad" together with some Oriental inscription.

There is an interesting story in connection with the manner in which these works of art fell into the hands of the customs officers.

Three years ago they were sent aboard the shipping board vessel Masnick, which sprung a leak on the way and was salvaged. The rugs were consigned to Peter Deppel and were sent by the bank of Deval, Russia.

Shipping board officials after considerable difficulty found Deppel and informed him that he could have his consignment on payment of his share of the salvage charge plus the import tax, which altogether came to about $5,000. The rugs were valued at $44,600 by the shipper.

Deppel refused to pay the charges and shortly afterward disappeared. Efforts to find him were fruitless and the rugs were removed from the custom house to the seizure room in the army base, Brooklyn. That was three years ago. Recently it was decided to sell the rugs at auction to recover at least some of the losses entailed by the shipping board and to collect the import tax.
