THE ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Twenty-sixth and Seward Streets—Russel Taylor, Pastor.

It is sad to record that a goodly number of our young people have been on the sick list, but a pleasure to say that all are improving.

Among our visitors last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew of Zion City, Ill. Mrs. McCorkle, Mrs. Jesse Snell and Miss Buford. They all spoke in highest terms of the services and of the sermon in particular.

The topic Sunday morning will be, "Salesmen of the Gospel". Sunday evening at 8 p. m. the pastor will discuss the question, "How Does God Speak to Us in These Times?" It is requested that any who have any religious social or economical question on which biblical light is desired that he present it in writing to the pastor and it will be discussed from the standpoint of God's word during the Sunday evening services.

The Christian Endeavor will be led by Russel Taylor, Jr. Topic—"The Personal Touch in Winning Others to Christ."

The first annual Mothers' and Daughters' mass meeting will be held Sunday, March 30, at 3 p. m., at Pilgrim Baptist church, Twenty-fifth and Hamilton streets. Theme of the meeting will be: "Chums—Mother and Daughter". Very interesting program.

Mrs. Lynn W. Lewis gave a delightful birthday surprise party in honor of her husband, Mr. Lewis and daughter, Mrs. Neoma McClenond, at their residence, 2853 Miami street, March 17. Each was a recipient of useful gifts. An appetizing menu was served. Covers were laid for twenty-seven guests. Decorations were green and white.

Rev. Robert W. Bagnall will preach at St. Philip's Church, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

James Bryant, former resident of Omaha, died in Chicago last Tuesday morning. He is remembered by older citizens of Omaha and is the father of May Belle Bryant.

COUNT WILKINSON'S AUNT DIES IN CITY OF WASHINGTON

Tuesday A. Count Wilkinson, editor of The New Era, received the sad news of the death at Washington, D. C., of his aunt, Mrs. Barbara Taylor. This news came close upon the distressing intelligence which came to him last week that his mother, Mrs. S. V. Wilkinson, had suffered a paralytic stroke. The sympathy of his many friends go out to Mr. Wilkinson in his sorrow and fervent prayers will be offered for his mother's recovery.

A WELL-MERITED PROMOTION

Miss Bertha Colbert who has been in the advertising department of the Brandeis store for several years where as assistant to the head of the department she has given most efficient service has been promoted to the head of this important department as successor to Richard L. Metcalfe who recently resigned. It is a well-merited promotion and Miss Colbert has fully demonstrated her ability to handle this big job.

THE OFFICE OF PUBLIC DEFENDER

The office of public defender is a most important one. This office has been admirably handled for the past two years by John N. Baldwin who seeks renomination for this position. Mr. Baldwin, who is the son of the late John N. Baldwin, for many years general solicitor for the Union Pacific Railway was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and has been a resident of Omaha for many years. In the discharge of his duty as public defender he has worked hard and rendered impartial service to all. He is well and favorably known among our people. His renomination and reelection will insure a continuation of the same conscientious service which has marked his tenure of office.

TO PLAY AT DREAMLAND

Robinson's Plantation Band of New Orleans appearing this week at the World Theatre will give a dance—Thursday evening, March 27, 1924, at Dreamland Hall. This aggregation carrying ten men has been playing all of the largest cities and is said to be the best Colored jazz band in the country. They will play from 10 p. m. until 2:30 a. m. A great treat is in store for the public.

ATTENTION HOTEL AND CLUB OWNERS

Because of the increasing demand for Hotel and Club Help, the Free Employment Bureau of the Colored Commercial Club is making up a Register of Employees, who specialize in this particular work, e. g. Waiters, Bus-boys, Maids, House-keepers, Janitors, House-men, Porters, etc.

If you are interested in this kind of work, you are requested to call at 1514½ No. 24th Street, Colored Commercial Club and file application—we will in the near future book Waiters for all occasions.

R. L. WILLIAMS, Free Employment Bureau, C. C. C., Omaha, Nebr.

CAN YOU GUESS HER IDENTITY?

A lecture will be given by a well-known Omaha woman, whose identity the promoters are keeping a secret, next Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Bowler, 2713 North Twenty-eighth avenue for the benefit of the North Side Branch, Y. W. C. A. Admission 15 cents and worth it.

RECITES AT CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Mrs. Fanie Russell, the popular and well-known elocutionist, was upon the president, invited to recite last Sunday afternoon before the Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Presbyterian Church, Twenty-fourth and Dodge street. Mrs. Russell recited "Belshazzars Feast," and was given an ovation for her masterly rendition of this great poem.

A PRAYER FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

O God, Who has appointed for all Thy sons a war to wage and a Kingdom to win, accept and fit us, we pray Thee, for Thy service. Enter, cleanse, and inspire our hearts in this day of our visitation. Give to us the spirit not of fear but of power, of love, and of discipline. Lead us to the battlefields which Thou hast prepared for us and meet us there with the comfort of Thy help; that though of ourselves we can do nothing, yet by Thy grace and in the fellowship of Thy service we may minister to the needs of our generation and to the coming of Thy Kingdom in peace. We ask it through Him who has endured the same conflict for us, Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.—E. A. Burroughs.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Rev. Thos. Taggart, Pastor.

The Sunday school convened at 9:30 with Mr. H. C. Garner, superintendent, presiding. We had a very lively session and a good attendance.

The B. Y. P. U. unions of Omaha are having a joint B. Y. P. U. session at Bethel Baptist, Twenty-ninth and T streets, Sunday, March 23, at 5:30 p. m.

The B. Y. P. U. convened at 5:30 p. m. with Mr. Willie Andrews, president, presiding. After the lesson a program was rendered by the junior group.

Mrs. Mary Cage, one of our dear members, leaves Thursday for Superior, Wyo., to spend spring and summer there.

We had Mrs. Collins of Oklahoma City, Okla., visiting with us. This week we had twenty-two new members added to the church.

BAGNALL TO ADDRESS A MASS MEETING

Robert W. Bagnall of New York City, director of branches of the N. A. A. C. P., will address a mass meeting at Zion Baptist Church at 3:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon.

He is one of the most eloquent speakers of the country.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. Frederick Divers, Pastor.

Sunday was quarterly meeting day at Bethel, the second for the Conference year. There was a good attendance at all the services, especially the afternoon when the visiting congregations from other churches were present. Rev. Wm. Majors of Council Bluffs preached, and the Communion was celebrated.

ST. BENEDICT'S THE MOOR

Twenty-fourth and Grant Sts.

At this church beginning with the 24th of this month Rev. Joseph Lannon, S. J., of Cleveland, O., will begin a Mission each night to which all are invited.

This Mission is as much for non-Catholics as for those of the church and a large attendance is looked for. There are no charges and no obligations. Just come and bring your questions with you.

Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have
Much common sense or tact,
Yet every time she lays an egg
She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot
Of intellect to show,
But none the less most roosters have
Enough good sense to crow.

The mule, the most despised of beasts,
Has a persistent way
Of letting folks know he's around
By his insistent Bray.

The busy little bees they buzz,
Bulls bellow and cows moo,
The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack,
The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks,
Pigs squeal and robins sing
And even serpents know enough
To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece
That nature could devise,
Will often stop and hesitate
Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise
And want our people's trade
Use THE MONITOR to advertise
And thus their fortune's made.
