

30,000 YOUNG MEN TO TRAIN AT U. S. CAMPS

Government Will Furnish Transportation.

Washington.—Somewhere in the neighborhood of 30,000 youthful citizens of the United States will enjoy a month's vacation at the expense of Uncle Sam this summer.

They will be furnished their food, shelter and clothing. Transportation to and from their homes will be paid by the government, and if they are in need of medical attention that, too, will be furnished gratis.

About twenty-eight citizens' military training camps will be maintained this summer, scattered all over the United States.

The present appropriation for training camp activities will allow for the accommodation of only 30,000 men, according to War department officials, but it is expected that at least 60,000 applications will be on file at the adjutant general's office before camps open in June.

Military training, however, will be the principal feature of the training course, and if the student attends the camps four years—a month each year—he will be eligible for a commission in the reserve officers' corps.

The Women's Overseas league has recently undertaken to further the work of the citizens' military training camps, and is conducting an essay contest on the subject, "Way a young man I know should attend."

Flounder Dragging on Fishing Boat Lorraine

Around Hyannis, Mass., is the only section in the world where this exact type of fishing is carried on. The fishermen use large gasoline boats and throw overboard a long net, which forms the letter V. Five or six barrels of fish are gathered in the average haul.

Fish Sleep Open-Eyed, Ready for Quick Action

Washington.—Do fish sleep? They do, says the bureau of fisheries, and moreover, sleep well, without closing their eyes. The sleep of fish is a type of suspended animation, during which some of the faculties of the finny tribe are at rest with their bodies.

But the sleep or state of suspended animation of fish is by no means like the deep sleep of a human being. A fish asleep may be jarred into instant action, with all his faculties alert and responsive, by a sudden motion of the water or a jar of the bank of a stream or lake.

The bureau is satisfied that aquarium fish, at least, have a period of rest in which they lie on the bottom of the glass inclosure without movement. They have been observed in the daytime and at night, and officials of the bureau believe these periods of rest come most frequently after meal time.

As to deep-sea fish, the bureau has observed similar actions in both the larger and smaller fish. Sharks, when they lie just under the surface of the water, sunning themselves, probably pass into a state of sleep, although their faculties are still alert. Whales are classed as mammals, but their eyes are lidless and do not close beneath the surface of the ocean.

Fruit Has Three Tastes

Washington.—A new fruit that tastes like a combination of banana, pineapple and strawberry, has been discovered by Dr. Wilson Popenoe, explorer for the Department of Agriculture. The chloite is found in Guatemala and will grow anywhere, according to Doctor Popenoe.

Jefferson's Law Book, Lost 50 Years, Found

Nashville, Tenn.—A copy of Coke's commentaries on Littleton, published in 1592, formerly the property of Thomas Jefferson, was found in the state library here, after having been lost for 50 years. The book was donated to the state library in 1871 by former Congressman J. M. Quarles. The volume was bought in London by Jefferson, according to the history written on the fly-leaf in the handwriting of Quarles.

ANOTHER LYNCHING IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Orangeburg, S. C., May 9.—Luke Adams, a Negro, was found lynched early in the morning of April 21 about three miles from Norway, in Orangeburg county. The deputy sheriff, who visited the scene shortly afterwards, said that the victim's neck showed seven or eight wounds and that there were other wounds in the body.

Baseball By-Plays

There have been bone-plays since baseball first began, and there always will—but how often has even the oldest fan seen a double bone? How many of us recall a case where both sides bated simultaneously, with ultimate victory to the club which first regained its senses? Such plays are scarce, indeed.

One of the richest of them all came off in Chicago long ago, when Boston and the Cubs were grappling one hot afternoon many years ago.

In the ninth, the visitors had the sacks full and one down. Cozy Dolan—the original Cozy, dead long since—was on second; Harry Gessler, the strong man, was playing center for the Cubs. A sailing fly went out to Gessler; Harry grabbed it—and, deciding that it was the third out, tied for the clubhouse with the ball in his pocket! And, at the same moment, Dolan also concluded that the game was over, left second base and followed Gessler to the clubhouse!

The scene that followed was a woe. Players screeching and profaning; one crowd yelling for Dolan to get back on base; the other gang shrieking for Gessler to turn and peg the ball—and neither of the noble athletes paid the least attention. Gessler reached the clubhouse a few jumps ahead of Dolan, and the door swung shut behind them.

A raving delegation of both teams raced to the clubhouse. The Cubs' advance guard managed to arrive one hop ahead of the Boston men, and Gessler, already half undressed, was notified, in anything but polite language of the miscue. The Boston messenger burst in and told Dolan; Dolan, who had his shoes off, rushed for the door. Gessler, clad chastely in his undershirt, managed to get the ball out of his pocket, chased Cozy, and succeeded in stabbing him with the ball just upon the threshold. It was solemnly declared the third out; the umpire announced that two men who had skipped over the plate for Boston didn't count, and thus ended the famous incident of the great Double Bone.

SHOREMEN SUE UNION
New Orleans, La., May 9.—(A. N. P.)—Seventy longshoremen, led by James Davis, have obtained an injunction restricting the Longshoremen's union from ousting them because an effort to call a strike in 1923 failed.

PHILADELPHIA NOMINATES

Philadelphia, May 1.—Samuel B. Hart and William H. Fuller were nominated by republicans for the next legislature. Judge Amos Scott and Dr. Milton A. White were named as alternate delegates. Mrs. Margaret Corbett and Charles B. Hall were nominated for the state committee.

ALL HAVE COLORPHOBIA

Washington, May 9.—All white Americans, whether north or south, republican or democratic, are afflicted with American colorphobia—race prejudice, writes Archibald Grimké in the "Shame of America", a paper just issued by the American Negro Academy.

6,000 JAPS MIGRATE TO MEXICO

Los Angeles, Calif., May 9.—Aroused by the discriminatory laws preventing them from holding land, 6,000 Japanese left southern California recently and migrated to Mexico. Their places are being taken largely by colored people from the South and West Indies.

betrayed

Their first conversation betrayed the fact that she was not fastidious

At a distance she had appeared unusually neat, immaculate. But upon their first face-to-face meeting he discovered that her teeth were not clean. And he soon lost interest.

So many people overlook this one matter of fastidiousness. And do so in spite of the fact that in conversation the teeth are the one most noticeable thing about you.

Notice today how you, yourself, watch another person's teeth when he or she is talking. If the teeth are not well kept they at once become a liability.

Listerine Tooth Paste cleans teeth a new way. At last our chemists have discovered a soothing treatment that really cleans without scratching the enamel—a difficult problem finally solved.

You will notice the improvement even in the first few days. And you know it is cleaning safely.

So the makers of Listerine, the safe antiseptic, have found for you also the really safe dentifrice.

What are your teeth saying about you today?—LAMBERT PHARMACAL CO., Saint Louis, U. S. A.
