Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have Much common sense or tact, Yet every time she lays an egg She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot Of intellect to show, But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow.

The mule, the most despised of beasts, Has a persistent way Of letting folks know he's around By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz, Bulls bellow and cows moo, The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack, The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks, Pigs squeal and robins sing And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise, Will often stop and hesitate Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise And want our people's trade Use THE MONITOR to advertise And thus their fortune's made.

Unusual Opportunity

We believe we offer an unusual opportunity in a neat cottage with a number of good outbuildings and eight big lots, all well fenced, chicken tight. It has a row of rhubarb nearly a block long, a little thicket of Elderberries, some small fruit, such as currants, perennial flowers and shade trees. The entire property is in excellent shape. Here is the proposition we will make to you, you may have it for around $2,500, you pay $100 cash and we will fix the terms to suit you.

Property is located at 45th and "W", southwest corner, two blocks west of city park having swimming pool and other recreational features.

There is a colored family who have lived across the street for some years. They are raising a wonderful bunch of chickens and a few good hogs for family meat.

WHY NOT YOU? You will do well to see it or come in and go out with us to look it over. Our office is open until 9 p. m. regularly.

Do not pass this opportunity by.
