SOUTH SIDE NEWS

A musical tea given at Allen Chapel Monday evening proved to be one of the grandest affairs of the season. Mrs. Sarah Jones under the tutelage of Madam Divers has developed so rapidly as an artist that she is now being styled the "Black Pattie" of Omaha. The musical part of the program was directed by Madam Divers. There was a large, appreciative audience that expressed as being pleased beyond their fondest dreams as to the high class nature of the entertainment and the moral inspiration it left upon the minds of the people present. Mrs. Ida Riddles is the president of the club that gave the entertainment.

Mrs. Rachel Caldwell of Cleveland, O., who came to the city to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Quincy Baldwin, who died very suddenly last week, was a visitor at Allen Chapel Sunday.

Miss Elsie Carter has a nice class of pupils in music, if our girls will prepare themselves there will be a way opened for them to apply themselves. We South Siders are proud of Elsie.

IT PAID HIM TO ADVERTISE One of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted—and he put up an advertisement for one. He flung a shirt on a pole, at the top of his island, that, in the language of the sea, was plain to every sea-faring man. The circulation was small—there was no other medium but Crusoe kept at it, despite the fact that he got no inquiries for a long time. He changed his copy—as one garment after another was frayed out—and in the end got what he wanted. Suppose Crusoe had taken down that signal after a time and declared—"Advertising doesn't pay," where would he and his story be now? Put up your signal and keep it there. Crusoe advertised under very discouraging circumstances. You've got a sure thing—it is only necessary to have the patience, persistence, and pluck of Robinson Crusoe—and the good ship "Better Business" will soon tie up 'longside your pier.—Baltimore Afro-American.

Advertising Talk A hen is not supposed to have Much common sense or tact, Yet every time she lays an egg She cackles forth the fact. A rooster hasn't got a lot Of intellect to show, But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow. The mule, the most despised of beasts, Has a persistent way Of letting folks know he's around By his insistent bray. The busy little bees they buzz, Bulls bellow and cows moo, The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack, The doves and pigeons coo. The peacock spreads his tail and squawks, Pigs squeal and robins sing And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting. But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise, Will often stop and hesitate Before he'll advertise. Merchants who are wise And want our people's trade Use THE MONITOR to advertise And thus their fortune's made.
