BILLY CUMBY

Famous Colored Comedian Will Appear With "Record Breakers" at Popular Gayety Theatre Next Week.

Glad tidings are in store for the lovers of Columbia burlesque, Old Man Johnson, manager of the Gayety theatre, says in announcing the coming of Billy Cumby (heralded as the Black Spasm), who will be seen at his best as one of the principal fun makers of Jack Reid's "Record Breakers", which comes to that popular burlesque theatre for one week, starting Sunday matinee, October 26.

To many of the theatre-going people, Billy needs no introduction, having been seen here for the past three seasons with the "Record Breakers", and formerly a great favorite with some of the biggest colored attractions.

BILLY CUMBY

(Known as "The Black Spasm")
Clever colored performer with Jack Reid "Record Breakers" at the popular Gayety twice daily all next week, starting Sunday matinee.

It is said that Billy Cumby is one of the cleverest dancers on the American stage today, and with the aid of his shuffling feet he impersonates railroad trains, fire crackers and many other movable objects. He can do everything with his nimble feet except talk. He is not only a dancer but a comedian of note and will be seen in several screamingly funny scenes with Jack Reid. In the present piece Cumby is allotted an amount of new and original material that gives him full opportunity for the display of his talents.

In selecting the cast to support Mr. Cumby and himself, Mr. Reid has given much care to the all important feature of engaging people who can "do something". This "do something" means talent and ability to entertain. In so doing, Mr. Cumby will be surrounded by such capable players as Jack Reid (the information kid), Kitty Warren, Helen Kay Booth, Jessie Rece, Joe (Sunshine) Melino, Joe Lang, Billy Roscoe, Benny Platt, Rose Sharon, Ray's Comedy Circus, Jahaan Franks and a big kewpie doll chorus.

It is asserted that the "Record Breakers" is one of the season's best offerings and is in two acts and fifteen scenes with some add twenty musical numbers that have that haughty, jazzy melody.
