Services were well attended at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday. Mrs. Jennie Johnson closed her services as chairman of Saturday Night Serving Club, having had a fine success. Mrs. Helen Owens will serve during the month of November. — The Mission gave a mass meeting at the church Monday night, having as guests of honor, Mrs. Mayme Griffin and Rev. H. W. Botts. Mrs. Griffin, who is president, and recently returned from her southern and eastern trip, gave echoes from the women's work, etc., of the national Baptist convention at Nashville, Tenn., last September. Vaughn, an attorney of St. Louis, Mo., as the speaker of the evening, who undoubtedly brought a message worthy of note. The Judicial Election

One of the important duties the voters of this judicial district will have to perform next Tuesday is to elect nine district judges.

And the important consideration to bear in mind, in reaching a decision, is that faithful, able and impartial service on the bench is deserving of reward. It is not alone, or chiefly, the judges deserve it. The community needs it, more than the judges do. For it is only by showing that a judge who gives honest service to the whole people can count upon commanding their support that we can make sure of preserving a local judiciary of such outstanding worth as Douglas, Washington and Burt counties, comprising this judicial district, now enjoy.

Judges Hastings, Goss, Redick, Fitzgerald, Leslie, Stauffer, Troup, Wakeley and Day, comprising the present district bench, are all candidates for re-election. The claims of each one of them upon the voters deserve careful consideration. The fact that they have been endorsed, in a body, by the bar association, should be given due weight. The high reputation which the bench of this district enjoys, not only locally but throughout the state, should not be forgotten.

The time to oust a judge from the bench is when he had failed to make good. And the wise thing to do with a good and satisfactory judge is to keep him on the job. It is not a good thing to experiment with new judges, unless the poor record of an old one has made experimentation necessary.

Candidate for Re-Election
Election November 4, 1924

Vote for
ROBERT SMITH
Clerk of the District Court

Republican Candidate for Re-election

A resident of Omaha forty-four years. As Clerk of the District Court prepared and secured the enactment into law of a simplified fee bill whereby the Clerk's office was placed on a cash basis. Prior to the enactment of this law, the County lost upwards of $40,000 in uncollected fees. He put the Jury Warrant shavers out of business by personally paying jurors' fees in full. He co-operated with the Bar Association and assisted in stamping out jury bribing.

Office Conducted Without Cost to Tax Payers

Robert Smith has demonstrated that better wages mean greater efficiency. Wages of employees have been raised to a level with the scale paid by private business. Men and women in the office receive equal pay for equal work. The business of the office has more than doubled during Robert Smith's incumbency. Through organization and efficiency in methods and service, this large increase has been cared for with but a small addition to the clerical force. As a result, $66,894.26 in surplus fees have been turned into the public treasury during the last quadrennium, after paying all running expenses of the office.

Robert Smith has been a faithful public servant. We bespeak for him your vote and active support for re-election.
