Herodotus and others. He made application of these historic facts to the traits of character, as well as the aptitude now displayed by the Negro in his artistic, spiritual and economic life. He closed with a powerful and forceful appeal to his audience to know their history and in the inspiration of that history to aspire to the highest ideals of manhood and womanhood. Musical numbers and other features preceded the lecture.

W. B. BRYANT, Attorney, Notice by Publication on Petition for Settlement of Final Administration Account.

In the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of Estate of Bertha A. Dixon, Deceased:

All persons interested in said matter are hereby notified that on the 29th day of January, 1925, Viola Sibley filed a petition in said County Court, praying that her final administration account filed herein be settled and allowed, and that she be discharged from her trust as administratrix, that a hearing will be had on said petition before said Court on the 21st day of February, 1925, at 9 o'clock A. M., and contest said petition, the Court may grant the prayer of said petition, enter a decree of heirship, and make such other and further orders, allowances and decrees, as to this Court may seem proper, to the end that all matters pertaining to said estate may be finally settled and determined.

BRYCE CRAWFORD,
County Judge.

ATTORNEY VAUGHN DELIVERS NOTABLE LECTURE IN CITY

Large Audience Greet Distinguished and Eloquent Speaker Who Presents Striking Historic Facts

On Thursday night, January 29th, Attorney George L. Vaughn of St. Louis, Mo., a delightful and eloquent speaker, delivered an instructive lecture at St. John's A. M. E. Church on "The Negro's Contribution to Civilization" to a large and appreciative audience. The speaker presented authentic historic data in support of his thesis that the Cushites, comprising Babylonians and Persians, Egyptians, Ethiopians, Phoenicians, Hittites and other races formed one large ethnic family of Negroes and that from these religion, art and the sciences, including astronomy, geometry, chemistry, medicine, the first writing, navigation, the epic poem, fable, fairy story, the institution of knighthood, the mortgage and deed of trust, promissory notes, various forms of commercial paper and many of the best laws which the world has were contributed by this ethnic group. He quoted such authorities as Dr. Rudolph Virchow, eminent anthropologist; Flanders Petrie, famous English Egyptologist; Rogers, Winchell, Volney, Rawlinson,
