ROOSEVELT POST AMERICAN LEGION ENTERTAINS AT SMOKER

The rooms of the Colored Commercial Club were crowded last Friday night for a smoker given by the Theodore Roosevelt Post No. 30 American Legion. It was a lively and enthusiastic gathering.

Guests from Omaha and South Omaha Posts and from the Disabled War Veterans were present as also representatives of The Monitor and the New Era.

Edward W. Killinsworth, Post Commander, introduced Dr. John Andrew Singleton as master of ceremonies. Excellent speeches were made by John Kilmartin and Commissioner John Hopkins, city commissioner and acting mayor, of Omaha Post; Dr. Swoboda of South Omaha Post; Mr. Watts of the Disabled veterans. Other speakers were the Rev. John Albert Williams, Count Wilkinson and Dr. W. W. Peebles. At the close of the speechmaking refreshments were served. Eight new members joined the post bringing the membership close to the half hundred mark. This is a decided gain, since only a short time ago it numbered less than 20. Every ex-service man is urged to join.

LINCOLN NEWS AND COMMENT

Frederick Holcomb, aged 15 years, died at his parents home, 1942 Vine street, Sunday morning after a brief illness. It is sad to think of a young man, who had graduated from the grade schools recently, preparatory for the high school, and has been cut short of his career in the world. Frederick leaves as survivors his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holcomb; a sister, Mrs. Hazel Dean; two brothers, Ray, who is employed at National Bank of Commerce, and a baby brother. The funeral was held at the A. M. E. Church Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. M. C. Knight officiating. We extend the family heartfelt sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

Adam Loving is reported on the mend.

Those reported on the sick list are: Mrs. Blossom Williams, 242 South Nineteenth; Mrs. Fanny Young, 1315 Washington; Mrs. Lulu Abner, 441 North Twenty-fourth, and several others.

J. T. Wright was confined at home this week with a gripe.

Rev. H. W. Bot's returned home Saturday from Plattsburg, Mo., where he preached at the funeral of Mrs. Mary Jackson, sister of Mrs. Alma Wiley. Mrs. Jackson died in Chicago and was brought to the home of her parents for burial.

The Utopian Art Club will give a George Washington program and entertainment at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Monday February 23rd.

Islam Court No. 43 has announced a popularity contest and entertainment for April 1st at Masonic hall.

Mrs. Alma Wiley returned home Monday from Plattsburg, Mo., where she attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Mary Jackson, at their mother's home.

Wilber R. Clark is reported on the mend.
