Have you read "The Fire in the Flint", the thrilling race novel by Walter F. White? It's a story everybody ought to read.

BANQUET GIVEN BY THE YOUNGER MEN AT THE NORTH SIDE Y. W. C. A.

The junior members of the Colored Commercial Club gave their first banquet on Thursday evening at the North Side "Y." More than twenty persons partook of a very sumptuous repast, most of whom were the guests of the club. Among the guests were: Father and Mrs. John Albert Williams, the Misses Singleton, the Misses Shipman, Miss Melva McCaw, Miss Hallot Allen, Miss Grace Dorsey, Miss Bugg, Miss Doris Goring. It was a most delightful affair.

The dining hall at the "Y" was very attractively decorated for the occasion. Every detail for the comfort of the guests and members of the club was very neatly taken care of. The long banquet table which set at the north end of the dining hall was very beautifully decorated.

The program was a very simple but interesting one. John Dillard Crawford, the president, introduced the speakers. The welcome address was delivered by Mr. Robert A. Greene. Miss Ernestine Singleton of the University of Omaha graciously responded for the young ladies. Mr. Lovejoy Crawford gave the history of the club. A prophecy was read by Miss Melva McCaw. It was a witty and mirth-provoking recital of what the members would be in 1940. Mr. Dwight Dorsey spoke of the club's future. This program was carried out at intervals during the progress of the meal.

Toasts were given in sparkling grape juice by members and guests.

BUFORD HOME BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE

Last Friday night the beautiful residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Buford, 2227 Miami, was badly damaged by fire which originated in the attic. Defective wiring is supposed to have caused it. Shortly before 8 o'clock neighbors discovered flames bursting out of the upstairs window and called the fire department which responded promptly. Mrs. Buford was dressed to go out and her son Harry was in his room getting his things together preparatory to going to Kansas City for a prisoner when the fire was discovered. The Buford home is one of the most beautiful residences owned by our group in the city. The loss is entirely covered by insurance.

MRS. MURRAY SINGS HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Press notices of Charlotte Wallace Murray, who is making a concert tour of the west and will be heard in Omaha for the first time next Thursday, are highly complimentary to this talented singer. She will sing at St. John's A. M. E. church next Thursday night under the auspices of the Theodore Roosevelt Post of the American Legion. Judging from the advance sale of tickets a crowded house is assured.

NEWS OF MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
24th and O Sts.

The following are the regular hours of service and special meetings: Sunday school, J. E. Lindsay, superintendent, 9:30 a. m.; morning service and preaching, 11 a. m.; men's Union, J. E. Lindsay, president, 3 p. m.; B. Y. P. U., M. Mosely, president, 6 p. m.; ladies' aid, Mrs. Minnie Griffin, president, Tuesdays, 8 p. m.; Mid-week prayer meeting, Wednesdays, 8 p. m.; missionary society, Mrs. L. F. McIntosh, president, Thursdays, 2:30 p. m.; Swastika Art club, Mrs. Grace Hayes, president, Fridays, 3 p. m.

The congregation is divided into five groups which meet weekly from house to house. The groups report each Sunday. The one which brings in the best report on the last Sunday in the month receives honorable mention. The group to whom this honor fell in January was No. 3, of which Mrs. Selma Clark is leader.

Last Sunday all services were well attended and there were twelve additions to membership. The total collections from all sources were $83.00.

Next Tuesday night there will be a debate between teams from Bethel Baptist church, South Side, and Mt. Moriah, on "Resolved, That Greater Credit Is Due Columbus for Discovering America Than George Washington Winning Its Independence."
