Martin, Oakland, Calif.; L. C. Brown, Duluth, Minn.; L. Stewart, Portland, Ore.; R. Petty, Portland, Ore. and H. Duvall, Pittsburg, Pa.

A BABY SHOWER

This does not mean that there was a shower of babies, but that the Priscilla Needlecraft Club visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Costen, 2719 North Twenty-eighth avenue, Thursday, February 26, and surprised the proud parents of a fine son who was born to them a few weeks ago with a number of beautiful gifts for the young Costen heir.

SACRIFICE SALE OFFERS OPPORTUNITY FOR BARGAINS

The women of St. Cecilia's Cathedral Parish are holding a Sacrifice Sale at 1910 Farnam street, Friday and Saturday of this week at which a large quantity of high class clothing and furniture will be offered at ridiculously low prices. This sale offers an excellent opportunity for the purchase of some fine articles at a very low figure.

MISS ALLEN ENTERTAINS WITH A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Hallot Allen, of 2612 Seward Street, entertained the younger set with a delightful party at Hanscom Park Pavilion last Saturday evening from 8:30 to 11:45. More than twenty couples were present. The hostess was attractively gowned in a light green semi-formal evening frock. The young ladies who were present were also attractively gowned. All the guests were very much pleased with the reception tendered them. Mrs. Alma Allen, mother of the hostess and Miss Malissa White were the chaperons for this delightful affair.

DESDUNNE'S BAND LEADS BIG FORD MOTOR PARADE

When the Ford Motor Company's big parade left the local plant Wednesday morning at 16th and Cuming, Desdunne's band, filling a one and one-half ton truck, was in the lead. At the very outset the band began playing popular, sonorous airs, which attracted a large number of people. All along the line of march hustling pedestrians paused one moment to listen to the soothing strains of Desdunne's famous band.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER ILL AT FAMILY RESIDENCE.

Mr. Jasper Cole, fireman of hose company No. 11 O. F. D. has been ill for the last week. Cole is still confined to his bed; however, he hopes to be able to get out the latter part of this week. Mr. Cole's illness came just one week after the removal of his little daughter, Juanita, from her home to St. Joseph's Memorial Hospital where she remained with high temperatures for more than two weeks. She, too, is confined to her bed, but very much improved.
