LEONA WILLIAMS COMING

Famous Columbia Record Star at the Gayety Next Week with Dave Marions' Company.

Miss Leona Williams, one of the featured members of the cast of Dave Marion's Own Show at the Gayety Theatre this week, is America's foremost Colored star, and is called "The Syncopated Queen." Miss Williams is a jazz singer for the Columbia Phonograph Company, making Columbia Records, and is a most popular artist. Among her latest song successes being "It Makes No Difference Now;" "Tease and Squeeze Man of Mine;" "Got to Cool My Doggies Now" and "You Don't Believe I Love You." Miss Williams has made a big hit in Columbia Burlesque, and her syncopated singing is sure to delight Gayety audiences this week. She will offer a number of her successes as her contribution to the success of next week's attraction—Dave Marion and His Own Show which opens its week of twice daily performances with Sunday's matinee and promises to be one of the season's most important events. This is none other than Dave Marion's "Own Show," in which this likeable comedian will again portray the character of "Snuffy the Cabman." Gorgeous stage settings, glittering costumes and marvelous electrical effects are always expected in Mr. Marion's offerings, and this year he is said to have surpassed all former efforts. Twenty-seven magnificent stage settings are promised with fifteen changes of costume, twenty musical numbers and eighteen unusually attractive choristers. There is also a cast of fifteen, including Mr. Marion and such well known vaudeville, musical comedy and burlesque artists as Josephine Sabel, Miss Richie Covey, Frank Du Teil, Charles "Tramp" McNally, Winnie Clifton, Irene Cornell, Fred Reeb and others.

GASSED VETERAN EVENTUALLY GIVEN HOSPITAL CARE.

Veteran's Bureau Places Negro Soldier in Hospital, After N. A. A. C. P. Demand.

THANKS N. A. A. C. P. FOR INTEREST SHOWN IN CASE.

New York, March 13.—Thomas Albert White, Negro veteran of the U. S. Army, gassed in France, who was denied hospital accommodation because of his color, has been placed in the National Sanatorium at Dayton, Ohio, according to a letter from E. O. Crossman, Medical Director of the Veteran's Bureau, sent to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Avenue, New York.

The N. A. A. C. P. early in February wrote the Veteran's Bureau asking why this veteran was refused accommodation in the government hospitals at Dawson Springs, Ky. and Beacon, N. Y. The Veteran's Bureau promised an immediate investigation of the case and under date of March 2, writes the N. A. A. C. P. as follows: "Further reference is made to your telegram of February 11, 1925, concerning the hospitalization of the above named beneficiary of the U. S. V. Bureau.

"Supplementing previous Bureau communication regarding this case, you are informed that according to a report just received from the Pittsburgh Regional Manager, transportation and cards of admission to the National Sanatorium, Dayton, Ohio, were issued to this patient on February 24, 1925. It is believed that his hospitalization has been accomplished. "It is desired to thank you for your interest in this case."

The per capita consumption of milk is forty-nine gallons.
