The Candidate group of the Girls' Friendly Society of St. Philip's church enjoyed an egg hunt and party at the rectory Monday afternoon. Four girls tied for first prize, each finding four eggs, and had to draw straws for a decision. Ellen Richardson got the first prize and Margaret Dickerson the second.

Miss Corinne Ferguson of Lincoln spent Easter in Omaha as the guest of Miss Margaret Murray.

Mrs. W. H. Robinson after a week's illness with la grippe is able to be out again.

Count Wilkinson, editor of the New Era, has been serving on the jury; so has Mr. William G. Haynes.

The Easter Ball given last Monday night at Dreamland Hall brought out a record-breaking attendance and a delightful evening was enjoyed by all present. The next big attraction at Dreamland will be April 27 when a fifteen-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

The employment situation is reported as very favorable for the month of March by the Colored Commercial Club.

A very elaborate style show featuring many handsome gowns designed and made by John A. Smith was given at St. John's A. M. E. church last Monday night before a crowded house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Smith are remodeling their home at 2916 North Twenty-eighth street.

The Merry Matrons club were entertained Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. W. A. Adams, 2515 Blondo street. Mesdames Adams and L. E. Britt were the hostesses.

Mr. Aaron Shackelford, graduate pharmacist from the University of Nebraska, is now employed in the prescription department of the Peoples Drug Store.

The younger high school girls of the city have organized, under the guidance of Mrs. G. W. Macklin and Miss Louise Guy, the Nachehelo club, which, it is said, is the name of the local branch of National Campfire girls. The club meets Saturdays at the home of Mrs. G. W. Macklin, 2209 N. 26th street.
