MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

The Girl Reserve department of the Y. W. C. A. held its third annual Mother and Daughter banquet Friday evening, May 8, at St. John's A. M. E. church.

The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion. The tables were beautifully decorated with candles and "GR" standards. The standards were designed by Miss Frances Gordon, one of the youngest and most active club advisors. The entire floor space was in use in order to take care of the two hundred and sixteen guests who took part in the celebration. Mr. Charles Burnett, secretary of St. John's church, acted as head waiter. He had as his helpers a very efficient group of the younger set of men. To this group goes the honor of having given the quickest and best service of any banquet served at St. John's church.

Miss Ernestine Singleton, past president of the high school girls glee club, acted as cheer leader. Miss Singleton is a very charming and vivacious young lady and performed her difficult task with much "pep", yet modestly.

A very interesting program was rendered. Miss Albertine Johnson read a paper on "The Gleam." It explained how the Girl Reserve department was the "gleam" of the "Y" and how "myself, knowledge, spirit, health and service" were rays of light from the "gleam." Miss Cleon Macklin explained "myself"; Miss Melva McCaw explained "knowledge"; Miss Helen Williams explained "spirit"; Miss Mae Gustin explained "health"; Miss Maud Singleton explained "service".

The girls club sang their club songs at different intervals during the program. Those catchy little songs kept a constant stream of laughter flowing through the room. "Sociability", the last song was indeed a surprise. The words of this song embody a wonderful lesson for anyone.

Mrs. Belle Riley, the chairman of the Girl Reserve department, thanked those who assisted. She also introduced the chef, Mrs. Bragg, and thanked those who assisted in the kitchen.
