WOLF CUBS ENJOY CAMP

The Wolf Cubs is an organization for boys from 8 to 12 years of age, with the same general principles as the Boy Scouts, which will not admit boys under twelve. The Optimist club sponsors the Wolf Cubs and aims to give the boys love for outdoor life and prepare them for scouting. It is a fine movement and should receive the encouragement of parents. An ideal camp was opened this year north of Florence and has been enjoyed by the boys. Last week the North Omaha pack, of which J. Dillard Crawford is cub master and Mrs. H. Wiggins, assistant cub master, enjoyed the camp privileges. Dr. I. L. Foley looked after the Cubs' health and Earle A. Stirling, Wolf Cub executive, with Dr. McDairmid and others were on hand to see that everything went well.

STRIKING STARS OF RACE STAGE

No. 1—Miss Edna Young. No. 2—Miss Mary Goodman.
No. 3—Miss Josephine (Bobby) Holmes. No. 4—Miss Hattie Brown.
No. 5—Miss Ivie Anderson. No. 6—Miss Lina Gray.
No. 7—Miss Josephine Leggett. No. 8—Miss Elsie Miles.

NEW YORK CITY.—Seldom in the history of our Race have so many lovely stars of stage and screen united in one cause as at present when the envied and admired of our Race, men and women everywhere are striving valiantly under beauty's banner to assist Madame Mamie Hightower in her nation-wide search for Miss Golden Brown of America.

Miss Edna Young—charming, chic, vivacious—"Little Edna"—is one of the most admired and popular little women that ever answered a curtain call. Her friends are legion and her popularity knows no boundary. She is one of the bright spots in Billy Mitchell's Review in Atlantic City, and her sweet personality is daily winning her thousands of new friends of all ages.

Miss Young says, "I am going to do my best to win one of the prizes. Friends are working very nicely for me, and express a desire to have me win."

Miss Josephine Leggett, popular as the "Creole Madcap" of "Shuffle Along" days, said this week while appearing at the Koppin

Theatre, Detroit, Mich., in regard to the Golden Brown Beauty Contest. "I am spreading the happy news everywhere of what Golden Brown has done for me. I nearly cried with joy when I was informed of being entered in the Contest. Should I be lucky enough to win I do not know how I will ever thank Madame Hightower and my dear sister. Every girl in the show is pulling for me." Miss Leggett has finished a week at the Washington Theatre, at Indianapolis, and is in the midst of a long swing of the summer circuit.

Miss Josephine (Bobby) Holmes, famed for face and figure, has long been a friend of Madame Hightower. Her perfect velvety skin and soft satiny complexion are the delight of thousands of theatre-goers of the nation.

Miss Mary Goodman is a vivacious Gotham actress with a saucy smile and winnings ways.

Miss Lina Gray's intelligence and charm make her truly a representative product of the cultivated, educated girls of our Race attending the institutions of higher learning and understanding. She is the perfect college girl.

Miss Hattie Brown, she of the charming curls and school girl loveliness, is one of the youngest and yet one of the popular of all foot-light favorites.

Like Miss Brown, Miss Ivie Anderson became famous over night and her notable work in that never to be forgotten Sissle and Blake production "Shuffle Along," which has run for eight months in Chicago after two years in New York, is well known.

These are but a few of the famous professional women entered in the great National Golden Brown Beauty Contest, in which our Benefactress is seeking the winsome women of our Race in America. Among the magnificent prizes to be given to the demurest damsel receiving the greatest number of votes are: Hudson Super-Six Coach, five free trips to Atlantic City, with all expenses paid; Five $100.00 Trousseau; Forty-Eight Diamond Rings.

The reception committee at Atlantic City will include a number of Race notables, among whom are: Mr. Eugene Kinckle Jones, executive secretary of Urban League of this City; Edouard Scott, the Rembrandt of Race Artists, of Chicago; Robert L. Vann, noted Pittsburgh publisher; Wilson Lovett, famous financier and civic leader of Louisville, and Miss Hallie Q. Brown, devoted teacher and scholar of Wilberforce College, of Ohio.

In an interview today with an I. R. N. S. correspondent, Madame Hightower said, "As the Dramatic Contest draws gradually to its grand climax, interest waxes hot, and fair favorites here, there and everywhere are supported by enthusiastic friends. I want every girl of our Race entered in the Contest to know that 50 to 100 free votes are still packed with everyone of the Golden Brown Beauty Preparations. This is one Contest where the rich and poor, high and low, all have an equal chance. It is the supreme, the crowning point of my career and I am overjoyed beyond words at the cordial co-operation and loyal assistance the Race press has given me in my great work."

No votes may be cast after midnight, Sept. 15, 1925, according to the terms of the Contest, which is being held by the Golden Brown Chemical Company of Memphis, Tenn.
