HADYENS

Nine Years of Successful Cash Merchandising Mean
Nine Years of Service Unequaled

By any other method. We pay cash because we are always prepared to pay cash. Cash sales protect us against any inconvenience of slow collections. A bill met before it is due is a bill paid at a considerable saving—it means merchandise bought actually for less. No merchant, whatever his standing or policy, can obtain pre-discounts unless he earns them with spot cash payment. He can do that, in these days of intensive merchandising, only by immediate cash obtained for his own merchandise.

Further advantages of Hayden's cash sales are the savings of credit, bookkeeping and collection expenses and the avoidance of credit losses, which savings so materially lower selling costs that our prices can be and are marked at much lower margins.
