Health Hints
1. Health is better than wealth.
2. Better a healthy peasant than a sickly king.
3. After dinner sit a while—After supper walk a mile.

The seventh lecture on The History of the Negro, will be given April 16th at 8:15 p. m. Topic "The African Slave Trade," Mr. H. J. Pinkett, leader.

GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER SERVICES AT ST. PHILIP'S.

The Good Friday services at St. Philip's Episcopal church brought out large congregations for the Three Hours' Service and for the evening service. Easter Day the church was filled for the 6:30 a. m. and 11 o'clock services. A handsome white silk chasuble, gift of the Altar Guild, was worn by the priest. The floral decorations were not elaborate, but exceedingly tasteful and beautiful. The music was well-rendered. Miss Ruth Seay was violinist. At the vesper service for children at 5 o'clock there was a good number present and Easter souvenirs were given to the children.
