REV. MARY E. PALMER LEAVES FOR CALIFORNIA HOME

The Rev. Mary E. Palmer, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Martha Taylor Smith, 2211 Ohio Street, for several months, left Monday night, in response to a hurried call, for her home in Pasadena, Cal., where she is pastor of a church. Mrs. Palmer's visit to our city has been a great source of pleasure to her many friends. A woman of culture and refinement, of a genial and sunny temperament, a delightful conversationalist and an excellent speaker she wields a great influence upon all with whom she comes in contact. Always willing to be of service, although here for a much needed rest, she generously and graciously responded for numerous addresses and was also the recipient of many appreciated social attentions. Mrs. Smith desires to thank her friends for the courtesies extended to her sister while she was in our city.

Never before in Omaha's Musical Merchandising History have you been offered a perfectly conditioned

Player Piano at $198

The word "sensation" does not put it strong enough—"Consternation" would serve better. Here we offer you REBUILT Player Pianos for only $198; even LESS than the price of ordinary uprights. And DON'T feel prejudiced because of the price. Remember only that these WERE originally $550, $600 and even $700 Player Pianos. The fact that they have been used should be no barrier, for they equal NEW Players in tone, appearance and mechanical PERFECTON.

AND THAT ISN'T ALL! WITH EACH OF THESE PLAYERS YOU RECEIVE FREE, A HANDSOME BENCH, AND PLAYER ROLLS

- $198 for an ARTEMIS Player Piano in a plain oak case. Sensational value.
- $198 for a SCHMOLLER & MUELLER Player Piano in a fine mahogany case.
- $198 for a MAYNARD Player Piano in a fumed oak case. A startling "buy."
- $198 for a SOLO CONCERTO Player Piano in a mahogany case. A delightful player.
- $198 for a CURTICE Player in a mahogany case. Another master value.
- $198 for a CABLE & SON Player Piano in mahogany. This one is unusually fine.
- $198 for a BELLMAN Player Piano in a mahogany case. Think of the price
- $198 for a FOSTER Player Piano in mahogany. A perfect musical treasure.
