LAW OFFICER RIDICULES NEGROES IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles.—Using a public school as a meeting place, F. C. Finkle, white, a special deputy sheriff, urged an attack against the family and property of Montis Carere. At the meeting wild speeches were made suggesting force to oust Mr. Carere from his property. The whites publish a little yellow sheet called the "West Jefferson Press," in which they give vent to their rantings. Finkle claims that the $5,000,000 owned by the colored people here would not build one good office building downtown and calls it childish to attempt to dictate to the U. S. supreme court.
