NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION
 In the Matter of the Estate of George H. Berkley, Deceased.

To all persons interested in the estate of George H. Berkley, deceased:

On the 21st day of July, 1926, Lula Berkley Williams, widow of George H. Berkley, deceased, filed her petition in the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, praying for an order dispensing with general administration. That said deceased, George H. Berkley, died in the city of Omaha on the 20th day of February, 1923, at which time he was a resident of Douglas County, Nebraska; that at the time of his death he had an interest through purchase on land contract in and to Lot 16, Block 1, Clarendon's Addition to the City of Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska.

That the said Lula Berkley Williams in said petition set forth the following prayer: Wherefore, the petitioner prays that general administration may be dispensed with; that a decree may be entered herein fixing the time of death of George H. Berkley; naming the heirs-at-law of the said George H. Berkley and their degree of kinship to the deceased and the right of descent of the real property belonging to said deceased; that due and legal notice be given of the time and place of hearing on said petition, and that, thereupon, at the time fixed in said notice a hearing may be had and a decree of heirship entered, and that the petitioner may have such other and further relief as to the court may seem right and just.

That a hearing will be had on said petition before Honorable Bryce Crawford, County Judge of Douglas County, Nebraska, in the County Court House, Omaha, Nebraska, at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M., August 25th, 1926, unless continued by order of the court to determine whether or not the prayer of the petition shall be granted.

BRYCE CRAWFORD County Judge.

PRESIDENT'S MESSENGER HAS HEART ATTACK

Paul Smith's—Major Arthur Brooks, one of the most widely known employees in the departmental service at Washington, who is serving President Coolidge as valet, has suffered an attack of heart trouble at the summer camp of the President. Major Coupal, the President's physician, was summoned and soon had his patient out of danger.

Major Brooks is past three score years old and has been valet to every President since Mr. Taft occupied the White House. He really came to Paul Smith's as a guest of the President and Mrs. Coolidge, with instructions not to work, but to obtain a rest and the beneficial effects of life in the mountainous country. He suffered a similar attack two years ago and Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge drove to his home and left flowers.

Major Arthur Brooks is an authority on military tactics and science, and has organized several militia organizations in the capital city. He at one time had charge of the national guard of the District of Columbia.

CENSUS SHOWS A SHRINKAGE
 Slight Decrease in School Population Revealed

School census this year shows a total of 49,798, which is 568 less than the total of last year—50,350, it was disclosed.

The census includes all persons between 5 and 21 years of age, living in Omaha.

This is the first year for a long time that the census has shown a decrease.

One of the features of the census is an increase of Negro children of school age, from 2,185 last year to 2,726 this year, this in the face of the decrease of the total. Children under the classification of "yellow" increased from 36 to 26. Number of employed children decreased from 6,338 to 6,127. The enumerators this year did not list the vacant houses and apartments.

WILLING TO SERVE AS CONGRESSMAN

The second congressional district has three worthy aspirants of the Republican party for the important and responsible job of congressmen in the persons of W. S. Sears, the present incumbent; W. F. Gurley, an able, public-spirited attorney, who has never sought political office before; Nathan Bernstein, a scholarly and high class gentleman, for many years, a teacher in Central high school. Each aspirant is being enthusiastically supported by groups of friends and admirers and each expresses confidence of being winner. The democrats, too, are grooming some worthy aspirants in the persons of Edwin L. Huntley, editor of the Mediator; Harry E. Fleharty and G. D. North. Each of these claims his powers to pluck the persimmon.

London's longest thoroughfare is Harrow Road, more than three miles in length, while the shortest street is Shorter street, only 44 feet long.
