ENTERTAINS FOR DR. PENN

Mrs. George Dixon entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon, at her residence, 2970 Pinkney street, Friday afternoon, July 30, in honor of the Rev. Dr. I. Garland Penn of Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Penn is secretary of the Educational board of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Robert R. Terrell, of Akron, Ohio, son of Sergt. and Mrs. Isaac Bailey, was an out-of-town guest. The other guests present were Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Ellis, Sergt. and Mrs. Isaac Bailey, Mrs. A. Bowler and Miss Eretta Smith.

VISITORS FROM TUSKEGEE INST.

Last Thursday Miss M. E. Suarez, librarian; Mrs. S. C. Shehee of the registrar's office and Mrs. C. E. Watkins in charge of the girls of James hall, Tuskegee institute, Tuskegee, Ala., were in Omaha as visitors. They were enroute to California. While in the city they were the guests of Mrs. C. H. Trusty. They were most favorably impressed with the city.

MINISTER VISITS RELATIVES

The Rev. and Mrs. F. D. L. McDonald, D. D., who has been pastor for five years of Collins A. M. E. church, Lansing, Mich., accompanied by their little son have been visiting Mr. McDonald's sisters, Mrs. Goodwin and Mrs. Garrett. Dr. McDonald has been recalled to Lansing, but Mrs. McDonald and son are still in the city.

INJURED BOY RECOVERING

George Sledd, little son of Mrs. Pearl Sledd of 1105 North Nineteenth street, who was injured last Sunday afternoon by being knocked off his bicycle by an automobile at Forty-second and Dodge streets is getting on very nicely. Fortunately no bones were broken.

UNION PICNIC BIG SUCCESS

Ten Sunday schools united in a large picnic last Thursday at Elmwood park where a delightful afternoon was spent by over 2,000 people. The Sunday schools taking part were Zion, Mount Moriah, Pleasant Green, Salem, Bethel and St. James' Baptist; St. John's and Bethel A. M. E.; Grove M. E. and Cleves Temple C. M. E. Mr. Harry L. Anderson was responsible for putting this, the first picnic of its kind to be held in Omaha, over. Baseball games, races and other games were eagerly participated in and were features of the day, while the tables literally groaned, but only for a little while under the abundance of good things to eat.

STREET CAR COLLIDES WITH AUTO

A party of Lincolmites narrowly escaped serious, if not fatal injuries, Sunday night about 6:30, when their automobile was struck by a north bound street car at Twenty-fourth and Grace streets. The occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ferguson and their eight-year-old daughter, Marie, and the Misses Twila Nichols and Anita Miller. They had left Lincoln after dinner for a ride to Fremont. The roads being in fine condition they decided to return to Lincoln by way of Omaha and were homeward bound. At Twenty-fourth and Grace Mr. Ferguson started to turn into the oil station after a south bound car had passed but evidently miscalculated the distance from the street crossing of a northbound car and which he thought would check up, as is customary in Lincoln. The motorist seemed unable to stop his car and struck the Ferguson car near the front seat. Little Marie, who was on the front seat with her father was thrown out, but escaped with minor bruises. Mrs. Ferguson was bruised on the head and Miss Nichols, who was the most seriously injured, was cut over the left eye. They were treated by Dr. Wesley Jones, and then taken to St. Philip's rectory where they spent the night, leaving Monday morning for Lincoln.

BOSTON SINGER PLEASURES AUDIENCE

The small audience which greeted Mlle. M. H. Demby, mezzo-soprano prima donna of Boston, Mass., at Grove M. E. church last Friday night was well repaid by a delightful program. It is to be regretted that a larger audience was not present for the talented singer richly deserved one. Mlle. Demby has an excellent voice and handles it well. Each number elicited encores to which the singer graciously responded. Her numbers were "The Dove", by Arditto; next a group of four including "The Sweetest Flower That Blows"; "Absent"; "An Emblem" and "The Daisy" and the closing number, "The Flower of the Alps". Carlton Goodlet contributed a saxophone solo; Mrs. Gertrude Shackelford, a humorous reading and Gaines' orchestra furnished two selections.

KANSAS CITY MINISTER GIVES ADDRESS AT PRE-ELECTION MEET

Dr. C. Sumner Williams of Kansas City, Mo., noted throughout the country for his anti-Klan activities, was the principle speaker at a large pre-election gathering held at the Summer Garden last Monday night.

The speaker in a very interesting manner, yet forcefully, set forth the aims and ideals of the Negro of to-day. He declared that a new Negro has come into being in America and that the old hat-in-hand, belly crawling, spittoon licking Negro was dead. In his place has come the new Negro, not seeking any special privilege or sympathy but the same justice and fair play that is accorded all citizens by virtue of our constitution. He stated that the colored man of today feels that if he is good enough to go ten thousand miles from home to pull a trigger to make this country safe for democracy he is good enough to scratch the ballot in the government of its civic affairs.

The Ku Klux Klan, the speaker asserted, was un-American. Men that had to cover their faces and deny their affiliation when questioned about their order were not to be trusted. In every place where the klan has been permitted to gain a foothold, it has brought its spirit of intolerance and the baneful effects which accrue therefrom. Indianapolis permitted it to thrive and the result was that regional segregation was fostered on our people. "No white man," said Dr. Williams, "no matter how high or powerful, can be absolutely free unless the black man is free also." In his conclusion, the speaker urged his hearers to make a prompt and sane use of their franchise and that it was treasonable to be indifferent when vital issues affecting our people were being determined.

Dr. Williams is a forceful speaker, has a very engaging manner, and drove his points home with adroitness by the use of carefully and cleverly selected anecdotes.

Speeches were made by Dr. John A. Singleton and other candidates for office.
